

Find Lost R. I. Child Drowned

2 CENTS

BOSTON EVENING AMERICAN
New England's Greatest Evening Newspaper

8

VOL. XXXV—No. 60

28 PAGES

Copyright, 1935, by N. E. Newspaper Publishing Co.

BOSTON, SATURDAY, MAY 25, 1935

Entered as second-class matter at Boston Postoffice

PRICE TWO CENTS

More N. E. Winners In Sweeps Draw

Lost Child Found Drowned

NORTH KINGSTON, R. I., May 25—The body of two and a half year old Helen Hammond, missing since yesterday from her Wickford Junction home, was found today in Rodman mill pond.

A swift running brook flows into the pond after passing within a few hundred feet of the Hammond house.

Police believed today that the child probably tumbled into the brook and was swept into the pond.

Medical authorities, prepared, however, to make an immediate examination of the body, to ascertain if the little girl had been a victim of violence.

Discovery of the body today ended an all-night search, in which hundreds of local police, state police, Boy Scouts, campers and volunteers joined.

The parents, Mr. and Mrs. Donald Hammond, first missed the child after supper last night.

The mother at first thought the father had taken little Helen to the movies.

When he came home without her, police were notified and the hunt began.

Cutter Seeking Plane Wreckage

CAPE MAY, N. J., May 25 (INS)—The coast guard cutter Champlain today was headed to a point approximately 25 miles southeast of the coast guard air base, here, where it was reported that wreckage, possibly of an airplane, was observed floating in the ocean by the S. S. Selma City.

The steamer, enroute to Norfolk, Va., from Portland, Me., did not stop after the wreckage was sighted.

Before Start of Race With Death From Flaming Plane

Real-Life Rescue—Picture story of the dramatic rescue from flaming death of beautiful Myrna Loy performed by Screen Actor Clark Gable. "Controlled" fire got out of control on a Hollywood set in the filming of a new picture. Gable raced to burning plane and pulled the actress to safety

(Story on Page 3)

Score Here Get Cash Awards

New showers of gold from the Irish Hospitals Sweepstakes fell today on lucky New Englanders in residual and consolation prizes.

With closing of the drawings in Dublin's Mansion House, Dr. Rowlette, vice-chairman of the Associated Hospitals committee, declared 1380 Americans had drawn prizes in the two-day draw.

A total of 32 Americans was listed in the 50 residual cash prizes of $5802 each.

Americans also won 791 consolation prizes of $500 each.

Among those who won residual prizes were:

James and Dick, 144 Oak Grove road, Springfield, Mass.

Lucky Baby, 36 Lusiana avenue, Bridgeport, Ct.

Among the $500 award winners were:

William King, 70 Holworthy street, Roxbury.

Joseph A. Fournier, 11 Choate street, Fall River.

Harvey and Etta, 21 Grover avenue, Winthrop.

E. D. M., 83 Adams street, Dorchester.

B and B, 98 Queensbury street, Boston.

April Fool, 1 Maplewood avenue, Holbrook.

John Day, 99 Washington street, Charlestown.

Never Say Die, Northfield, Vt. Milox, Putney, Vt.

Six Brothers-One Sister, 71 Percy street, Chicopee Falls.

Garden City, 747 Watertown street, Newtonville.

Dr. Charles A. Draper, 57 Marlboro street, Boston.

Rand and Sagrus, 80 Church street, Burlington, Vt.

Mary Lee and another, 29 Pleasant street, Boston.

Continued on Page 7, Column 2

Sound 'Call to Family Life'

Plea for Youth 'Stop Crime With Religion'

Special to Boston Evening American

NEW YORK, May 28—Thousands of youths could be saved from criminal careers through religious training, Judge John Warren Hill, presiding justice of the New York Juvenile Delinquency Court, declared today.

Manhattan's foremost juvenile crime jurist blames 60 per cent of the 6000 delinquency cases on disolute and godless home environment.

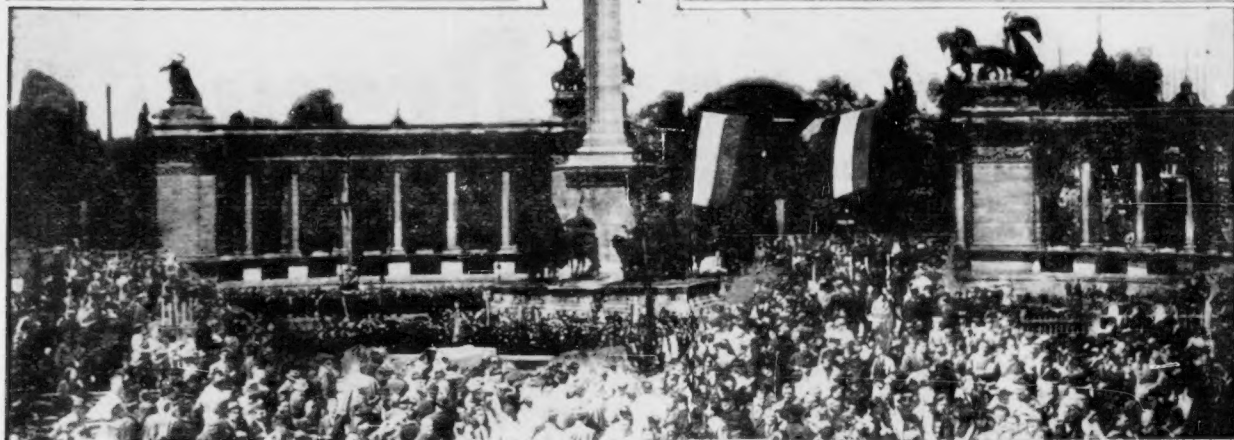

"Religious interests for young people are essential to their moral welfare," he said, commending William Lyon Phelps, noted American educator, for his article, "Religion in the Home," in the current Good Housekeeping Magazine.

'Don't Lose Faith' Plea to Church Congress

BUDAPEST, May 28—Joseph Scott of Los Angeles, a papal knight, educator and civic leader, advised Americans to seek the same faith shown by many Europeans in speaking at the Eucharistic Congress here.

"In America," he said, "we are losing that kind of strong faith that can still be found on this continent. We Catholics in America should humbly learn the faith of Europeans in the small countries. The priests must work together with the poor people. That is why the church has succeeded in Ireland."

Early in the evening a general Communion for soldiers and ex-service men was held in Hero's square. It was another impressive feature of the Congress, with many distinguished religious, civil and military personalities among the congregation.

Hero Square, Budapest, Where 500,000 Catholics Gathered at Impressive Eucharistic Congress Midnight Ceremony

'Family Life' Is World Need

BUDAPEST, May 28 (INS)—A dramatic call for "real family life" as the last means of preventing humans from "attacking each other like packs of wolves" was sounded to the world tonight by Premier Bela Imredy, before 60,000 pilgrims to the Eucharistic Congress.

Hungary's Premier won rousing cheers from the throng gathered in ancient Hero square on the second day of the 34th Eucharistic Congress, when he said:

"Society is lacking in real family life. It lacks also real Christian spirit in public life. Now what remains of the family life of the world is shaken by threats of world war."

"Therefore, before it is too late, we must re-establish the family in order to prevent those, who at present understand each other from becoming wild enemies and attacking each other tomorrow like packs of wolves."

400,000 JAM SQUARE

With the Premier's words barely concluded, Hero square began to fill to its every corner with thousands of Catholics arriving for the midnight ceremony in which they were to receive Holy Communion. 400,000, from the four corners of the earth, packed the area and communion was offered by Archbishop Goma of Spain.

While thousands of pilgrims carrying torches and candles, and chanting hymns turned the night into a remarkable spectacle of piety, hundreds of priests mingled with the throng under the open sky hearing thousands of confessions.

JOSEPH SCOTT

PREMIER IMREDY

Duce to Show He Is Set to Avenge

By FRANK GERVASI

International News Service Staff Correspondent

ROME, May 28 (INS)—Empire-wide Fascist demonstrations on the "day of Italian solidarity with Insurgent Spain" will be held tomorrow to prove to the world that millions of Italian bayonets are ready to avenge the thousands of Blackshirts, who have fallen in Generalissimo Francisco Franco's cause.

A survey of Italian casualties in the Spanish war today disclosed that more white troops and officers have been killed fighting for Franco than fell in the whole Abyssinian campaign.

The intention of tomorrow's demonstrations is to prove to the Italian people, to the widows and orphans, and to the maimed survivors, that those, who fought and died in Spain, did not die in vain.

Although not scheduled officially, a speech is expected from Premier Mussolini backing up the assertion that Italy must have a Fascist victory in Spain.

The 35 casualty lists published since the outbreak of the Spanish war, although incomplete, show the Italian dead total 2542 and the wounded 3718.

President Pays Mother Visit

HYDE PARK, N. Y., May 28 (INS)—President Roosevelt arrived at Poughkeepsie today and motored to his family estate here to await public reaction to his demand that federal, state and local taxes be revised next year so "certain forms of tax avoidance" and "concentrated investment power" might be definitely stamped out.

The President was retiring to his mother's Hyde Park, N. Y., home for the Memorial Day week-end after having blazed what observers considered another major issue for Democratic aspirants to Congress in the coming election.

TOWN TAX REDUCED

NORTHAMPTON, May 28—A $150 drop in the Northampton tax rate was revealed today with announcement by the board of assessors of a $31 rate for 1938, the lowest tax in eight years.

Weather vane

SATURDAY, MAY 28

LOCAL—Generally fair today and slightly warmer, fog slowly dissipating tonight; not much change in temperature. Gentle southeast to south winds. Mostly cloudy on Sunday, scattered showers during the day. Showers Monday, not much change in temperature.

NEW ENGLAND—Fair today over the interior; fog along the coast, not much change in temperature, gentle to moderate southeast to south winds. Scattered showers tomorrow and Monday.

THE MOON

BAROMETER

June 20 Last Q
June 26 New
June 4 First Q
June 12 Full

Boston, 5:12 A. M. 73 Sunset, 8:11 P. M.
Light 30 yellow 21 8:45 P. M.
Boston 54 60 Cloudy
Buffalo 54 60 P. Cloudy
Los Angeles 54 72 Clear
Miami 72 84 Cloudy
New York 64 76 Cloudy
Washington 66 80 Cloudy
Barometer 30.18 30.11
Thermometer 54 52
Wind—direction 24 22
Wind—velocity 2 2
High water 10:51 A. M. 1:31 P. M.
Low water 2:52 A. M. 1:27 P. M.

AMERICAN INDEX

Beatrice Fairfax
Boston After Dark
Comics
Crowsword Puzzle
Editorial
Eddie Robinson
Fashions Financial General Johnson
Girl About Town
"Love in Swingtime"
Movie Contest
Radio
Society
Sports
Theaters, Films

10
12
20, 21
26, 28
10
16
17
18 19 20 21
22
23
24
25
26
27
28, 29

Halpern's Story Aids War on Reds

NAMED IN "ANTI-RED" REPORT—Philip Frankfeld, Communist party official here, whom special commission investigating "isms" in state charges with assisting in recruiting local residents for government forces in Spanish War. Commission's report has just been filed.

Startling revelations of the spread of Communism in Massachusetts and official confirmation of Communist recruiting of local youths for service in the Spanish Loyalist army today spurred patriotic organizations throughout the state to indignant action.

Specific charges of active supervision in the recruiting were hurled at Philip Frankfeld, secretary of the Communist party in Massachusetts, and Manuel Blanc, party official.

These reports, filed with the Legislature, were made by the special recess commission which investigated Communism and other subversive movements.

The investigation was aided materially by a series of exclusive articles written by Captain Alvern Halpern for the Boston Evening American and Sunday Advertiser, in which he revealed how Communistic action in Boston had influenced him to join the Loyalist army.

The commission urged legislation for establishment of a division of citizenship in the department of education to instill Americanism in children and adults and to prohibit doctrines which advocate economic change by use of force or violence.

So extensive and complete was the commission's report that an organized drive against Communistic influences was immediately planned by state officials and institutions.

BACKED BY REDS

Concerning the Spanish civil war, the commission reported that Massachusetts youths were being enticed to serve with the Loyalist forces and that Communists "have furnished the necessary funds to finance certain of these boys and furnished them with money for transportation."

In verification of Captain Halpern's story, the commission continued:

"Entry was made into France and the sum required to be in the possession of the boys was provided for them and then turned over to the Spanish government agents in France."

For purposes of undercover recruiting, Blanc was named as Boston agent for "The Friends of the Abraham Lincoln Brigade," with recruiting quarters at 12 Newbury street, and in Causeway street, Blanc, according to the report, has said:

"I am simply the agent of the New York headquarters here in Massachusetts."

He and Frankfeld were accused in the report of "violating federal laws."

The commission also reported: "Communism is a menace in this country and its influence is spreading rapidly in this state. The commission submits that sedition doctrines are being regularly advocated throughout the Commonwealth; that a great interlocking of admittedly communistic organizations with organizations equally communistic, but denied to be, exists in this state."

Farley 50 Monday; Plans Small Party

WASHINGTON, May 23 (AP)—Jim Farley will turn 50 Monday in the middle of one of the toughest years of his political career.

The man who directs the political fortunes of the Democratic party faces revolt in his own ranks and growing strength in those of Republican opponents. The only special celebration of the anniversary will be a small party arranged for late Monday at his New York home.

Unitarian Group On Picnic Today

Anniversary services held in Boston by Unitarians will end today with a picnic of the Greater Boston Federation of the Young People's Religious Union at Babson Park, Westchester Hills.

LEADERS IN WAR ON RADICALS—State Senator Sybil L. Holmes, Brookline, chairman of special commission which has proved "isms" in state, and Philip Sherman, one of those who demanded investigation. In report just made, commission urges state-wide campaign to curb growing "Red" menace here.

Rivers Evens Hurley Score

The score in the game of extradition between Massachusetts and Georgia today stood: Hurley, 1; Rivers, 1.

Governor E. D. Rivers of Georgia forced the contest into overtime as he declined in a letter to Governor Hurley to sign papers for extradition of Carlie Carper, wanted here since last October on a charge of non-support of his wife.

Meanwhile, Inspector Henry M. Pierce of the Boston police was enjoying the Georgia sunshine (we'll concede that, Governor Rivers) in a sort of "what-to-do" manner.

The game started a year ago when Governor Hurley refused extradition of a fugitive from a Georgia convict chain gang and criticized the prison system there.

Working Wives Lose Appeal

Mayor John M. Lynch of Somerville today denied the appeal of eight married women against his dismissal edict on the grounds they were no longer needed in city service.

With refusal of the mayor to change his decision, the former city employees had only the courts as a further resort.

The mayor's decision was made known in a letter mailed to each by City Solicitor Robert J. Muldoon. The women were Leah M. Estate, Emeline E. Edkins, S. Frances Nugent, Marion L. Gillard, Henrietta B. Keenan, Frances Sharpe Lewis, Mary Welch and Helen Hasselton.

Charlie, Educated Bass, Back, Has Family Now

SARANAC LAKE, N. Y., May 23 (AP)—Charlie, the educated bass, was back at Captain Harold Thomas' boat slip today—but not alone.

"Charlie's brought the family along this summer," said Thomas. "Watch." He blew a whistle.

From beneath the duck a shadowy form emerged, rose to the surface and, gingerly accepted from the captain's fingers, a choice crawfish.

Beneath Charlie, in the murky depths surrounding the slip, were two other fish—which Thomas said were both bass.

"They're Gwendolyn and Oscar—Charlie's wife and son," he affirmed.

Charlie attracted attention last summer when Thomas announced he had trained the bass to rise to the surface of the lake on signal.

Skeptics scoffed; Thomas said nothing—only "Come and see."

Nahant Ready For Roosevelts

Ace secret service men from Washington, their preliminary surveys already completed, will return next week to Nahant to prepare for the arrival of President and Mrs. Roosevelt on June 17, the day before their son John marries Anne Clark.

A gay party will be given aboard the President's yacht for Roosevelt and Clark family members on the eve of the wedding.

Workmen today neared completion of the pink and blue modernistic house, which will be the young couple's honeymoon home.

DeValera Asks New Mandate

DUBLIN, May 23 (AP)—Determined to seek a clear mandate to carry on his policies, Prime Minister Eamon DeValera today plunged into a three weeks' campaign for election of a new Dail Eireann or lower House of Parliament.

Dissolution of the Dail Eireann was announced yesterday and new general elections were called for June 17.

Defeat in a snap vote Wednesday over creation of an advisory board to deal with civil servants' grievances caused the decision, though under the constitution new elections were not mandatory.

Gable Saves Myrna Loy From Blazing Film Plane

HOLLYWOOD, May 23—Myrna Loy had Clark Gable to thank today for a real-life rescue from the flaming airplane where the titian-haired favorite of the screen faced loss of her beauty and even death during the filming of a movie sequence.

Miss Loy was playing an aviator on a round-the-world flight. Gable was a newsreel cameraman and the scene was an airport.

The script called for Miss Loy to be seated in a plane, its cowlings over her head. Gable was to be nearby with his camera apparatus. Suddenly the script authors directed, the plane was to catch fire.

A studio trick known as "controlled fire" was to be used.

But the "controlled" fire got out of control. The flames ignited the cowlings over the cockpit and then spread to the plane.

Gable sprinted toward the plane, ripped back the cowlings and dragged Miss Loy from the cockpit.

A Saga of the City

Dolan's Fate: Yacht to Jail

There were a lot of things former City Treasurer Edmund L. Dolan might have been thinking about today as he ate his first Charles street jail breakfast of prunes, oatmeal, bread and coffee.

Memories of other breakfasts, eaten in far different surroundings, could hardly have helped his appetite.

Breakfast aboard the big luxury yacht, Maicaway, which Dolan used to own when he was at the height of what seemed to be an Horatio Alger career, was always a ceremonious occasion.

Governor Curley and other higher-ups of state and city were frequently Dolan's guests aboard the sleek, 90-foot vessel which was built at a cost of $100,000.

WELL-STOCKED CELLARETTE
Dolan had a two-way radio installed on the Maicaway. The bill for that was upward of $6000.

Breakfasts were late, aboard the Maicaway. But white-jacketed stewards served them deftly, at a table set with silver, fine linen and crystal.

The grapefruit was properly chilled, the omelets were fluffy—and, if anybody needed a pick-me-up, the cellarette was well-stocked.

But in Charles street jail, they serve no grapefruit, no omelettes, no pick-me-ups.

And "Eddie" Dolan will never again eat breakfast on the Maicaway. She was sold at auction for $10,000 a couple of months ago.

"FIXED" NEST IN JAIL

Dolan had other things to worry about then. He was already deeply involved in the series of unhappy events which were climaxed yesterday when he and two fellow defendants were sentenced to two and a half years in jail.

The charge was contempt of court: to wit, attempted jury fixing.

Before that, other troubles had kept former City Treasurer Dolan from enjoying his breakfasts.

Even back in the days when he still held his $7500-a-year city position, he had been obliged to declare himself insolvent and pay some of his debts on a so-many-cents-on-the-dollar basis.

WOES PILE UP

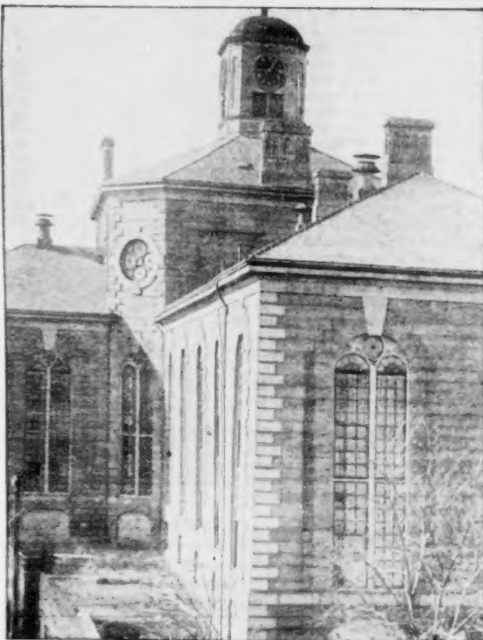

Then came civil suits, brought on behalf of the city. The city won and Dolan was ordered to make restitution of more than $178,600.

Next in order was criminal prosecution and the jury-fixing attempt.

But in good times and bad, a man has to eat.

So Dolan, who is 46 now, had a lot of breakfasts to remember—in Charles street jail this morning.

Maybe he contrasted his present lack of appetite with the joyous hunger he used to feel when his mother called him to his morning meal back in the days when he lived in humble surroundings in Roxbury and Dorchester.

SENTENCED TO JAIL—From poverty to luxury, now in Charles street jail, Edmund L. Dolan, former city treasurer, views the world with puzzled eyes . . . victim of that poverty and luxury that brought on jury-fixing and a two-and-a-half-year sentence in this jail.

END SEAT HONOR

First big success in Eddie Dolan's life was the time he was appointed to collect spelling papers in Oliver Wendell Holmes school.

He got that job because he sat on an end seat, he later recalled. Too excited to eat, Eddie Dolan was, that morning back in 1914, when, at 21, he was appointed secretary to the newly elected Mayor James M. Curley. Eddie Dolan's grandmother and Jim Curley's mother had been old friends. They used to go to church together, when they lived in the same South End neighborhood.

THEN CAME BANKING

The job as Curley's secretary brought Eddie Dolan a salary of $4000 a year.

That was a lot of money for a 21-year-old youth. He could have what he wanted for breakfast, all of a sudden.

After his first city hall term, Dolan found himself a bank position. It didn't pay much, only $25 a week, but it was a rung on the ladder upward.

In those days, he used to study accounting—and prop the book against his water glass, at breakfast time.

It wasn't long, then, before Eddie Dolan's breakfasts began getting better.

BUY HIS MANSION

His fortunes soared together with those of his good friend and benefactor, Jim Curley.

While Dolan was city treasurer, as a Curley appointee, he took the step which put him definitely in the "caviar-for-breakfast," "men-who-have-made-their-way" category.

He bought a splendid mansion on the Jamaica way, only a few houses separated from the Curley home.

When you live in that particular section of the Jamaica way, you don't stint yourself at breakfast.

NO THOUGHTS OF JAIL

Sometimes it is served to you and your guests' English country house style, with everything warm and steaming on the buffet and later risers helping themselves, according to their appetites, if any.

Living on the Jamaica way, you

Going, Going . . . Gone!

MEMORY OF PAST—Like Edmund L. Dolan, his once palatial yacht stands dejected—victim of circumstances. The Maicaway, where he once entertained the greats of Massachusetts, is shown at its wharf . . . just before it was auctioned off . . . for back taxes.

TIME STANDS STILL—Former City Treasurer Edmund L. Dolan (right) finds his gilded past a memory, and the future a dream. Time stands still for him now—for two years and a half, while he serves his jury-fixing sentence in Charles street jail.

never could think about what prisoners ate for breakfast in Charles street jail.

But the last good breakfasts Eddie Dolan might have remembered today weren't those at his Jamaica way mansion, now attached and tossed into the pot in the general sacrifice of Dolan assets to pay Dolan debts.

Even after the bad breaks had begun to come, Eddie Dolan made the best of things, for a while.

He was in Florida for many a winter month, accumulating sun tan, catching up on his fishing and eating the kind of breakfasts they serve you in Florida—if you don't look at the right hand figures on the menu!

Down there, where fruit is plentiful and cheap, they always put a slice of lime in your finger bowl.

But they don't give you finger bowls—at Charles street jail!

Judge'S Busy Day ---Dolan, O'Brien

Before lunch, Judge Frederick W. Fosdick found former City Treasurer Edmund L. Dolan and two fellow defendants guilty of contempt of court and sentenced them to two years and a half each in Charles street jail.

After lunch, Judge Fosdick received a report from Attorney-General Paul A. Dever's "blue ribbon" grand jury, which indicted Mayor James M. O'Brien of Revere on charges of larceny and embezzlement.

Then O'Brien was arraigned before Judge Fosdick, who set bail at $500, accepting personal recognizance.

During the rest of the day, all Judge Fosdick had to do was attend to his routine duties as presiding justice of one of the busiest criminal courts in the United States.

But it wasn't the kind of a day Judge Fosdick, 63 years old and 18 years in his present office, would really call arduous.

He's looking forward to more busy days as the "blue ribbon" Revere probe jury continues its session.

JUDGE FOSDICK Has a Busy Day

(Boston Evening American Photo)

Bombs!

Barcelona, Canton Cringe!

By the Associated Press

Bombs fell on Canton and Barcelona today in the world's two major conflicts; Mexico's eight-day rebellion appeared to be on its last legs, and uneasy Czechoslovakia masked fear of Germany with a flag-waving celebration of President Edouard Benes' 54th birthday.

Officials estimated 700 persons were killed and nearly 1000 wounded when a dozen Japanese planes dropped more than 100 bombs in an effort to wreck the Canton station of the Canton-Hankow Railway, principal gateway of supplies for China's warring legions.

In the Spanish war, eight low-flying bombing planes swept in from the Mediterranean and for 50 minutes rained explosives on the southern part of Barcelona, provisional capital of the republican government. Reports on casualties and damage awaited an official checkup.

After about a week without important progress in their projected drive into the interior of China, following the fall of Suchow, the Japanese army announced occupation of Kweichow, 50 miles west of Suchow on the Lunghai railway.

JAPS DRIVE ON CAPITAL.
Kweichow was said to have fallen after fierce hand-to-hand fighting, giving the invaders a convenient base for their push westward and then to the south for assault on Hankow, provisional Chinese capital.

Advance columns swerved to the south of the east-west Lunghai, hoping to cut the Peiping-Hankow railway south of its intersection with the Lunghai before attempting to invest Chengchow, the Homan province city where the two lines cross.

The Barcelona raid capped a week of warfare in Catalonia in which government forces sought desperately to crack the insurgent line near Tremp, about 85 miles northwest of Barcelona. Insurgent dispatches reported an entire government division was shattered in an attempt to storm Tremp's defenses.

HITLER IN "WAR" COUNCIL

Under Czechoslovakia's celebration today there were grave anxieties over the internal pressure of the Nazis among the 3,500,000 Germanic minority and the Hitlerian "protectorate" over them.

The principal newspapers displayed a Berlin dispatch saying that Chancellor Hitler had conferred again with Germany's military chiefs.

The Czechoslovak government's decision to maintain extraordinary concentrations of troops on the border facing Germany "so long as the situation is unchanged" was emphasized by the press.

Mexican federal troops were

TYPE OF BOMBER USED IN SPAIN AIR RAIDS

close on the heels of Saturnino Cedillo, leader of a Rightist rebellion against the Leftist government of President Cardenas.

His pursuers feared he might escape to the United States, although Cedillo's two fast transport planes fell into government hands.

One of the planes was found abandoned in a cornfield eight miles from San Luis Potosi, where it was believed Cedillo and a handful of followers had hidden out in the brush-covered hills of San Luis Potosi state.

Small bands of "Cedillistas" were reported surrendering daily.

Czechs Seize Hundreds

BERLIN, May 28 (INS)—The diplomatic war between Czechoslovakia and Germany reached new heights of tension today when hundreds of Czechs working in Germany for the summer were suddenly ordered by telegraph to return immediately and were seized upon their arrival in frontier Czech towns.

The men who were taken into official custody included residents of Czechoslovakia's Sudeten area, pro-Nazi focal point in a political struggle which threatens to destroy the peace of Europe.

All had been employed within German territory and along the Austrian frontier.

Although details of their detention in Czechoslovakia were not disclosed, it was assumed they were conscripted into the Czech army, now mobilized along the borders.

This surprise move by the Prague government left vacant hundreds of technical posts with German companies and resorts. For the most part the Czechs were said to have been unemployed in Czechoslovakia.

German officials were puzzled by the act, but considered the procedure a further deliberately unfriendly act on the part of Czechoslovakia.

Prague's official protest against German planes flying over Czech territory will be rejected as "unfounded," it was declared.

PRAGUE, Czechoslovakia, May 28 (AP)—The Czechoslovak public bravely flaunted the national colors of blue, white and red in the face of an uncertain future today in observance of President Benes' 54th birthday.

All admitted there were grave anxieties behind the flag—the steady internal pressure of 3,500,000 Sudeten Germans, the majority led by Nazi Fuehrer Konrad Henlein demanding sweeping autonomous powers and supported by powerful Germany.

Death Rains From Air

SHAMBLES—Like this recent street scene in a Chinese metropolis—marked return of Japanese bombers to their tactics of mass destruction of non-combatants. Canton was the city that suffered today.

Shanghai Hit by Plague

SHANGHAI, May 28 (INS)—An epidemic of cholera—a disease more dreaded than war—threatened today to spread through Shanghai's crowded native districts, still packed with hundreds of thousands of Chinese refugees.

New cases were reported to health authorities today and, with cholera's grip holding many other Chinese, officials stamped it an epidemic. In nearby Pootung a number were reported dead.

Authorities launched a move to establish clinics throughout the stricken areas.

Mexican Rebel Capture Near

SAN LUIS POTOSI, Mexico, May 28 (AP)—Swarthy Rebel Chieftain Saturnino Cedillo was hidden somewhere in the bush eight miles northwest of this state capital today, closely pursued by federal troops after two narrow escapes from capture.

Four followers who escaped with him by plane from Zecotile (Mockingbird) ranch, his hideaway headquarters northeast of Toluca, when surprised yesterday by federal troops, were reliably though unofficially reported to have been captured.

Loyalists Lose Entire Division

HENDAYE, France (At the Spanish Frontier), May 28 (AP)—Insurgent dispatches today told of an entire government division being shot to pieces in a futile attempt to storm the defenses of Tremp, vital hydroelectric power center on the Catalonian front.

Only one company was able to regain government lines. Advances reaching the border said the government had massed more than 35,000 men along the 10-mile sector east of Tremp.

Lens Target Awaits 'Photo Finish' In Arrest

Boston Evening American Photo.

PHOTO THAT LED TO CAPTURE—This picture taken by candid camera enthusiast was used by police in seeking youth held on suspicion of larceny of an auto. Photo was snapped as suspect, in center, was being seized by two civilians, from whom he broke away. Arrested later, suspect gave his name and address as Edward J. Adams, Harrison Park, Dorchester.

Edward J. Adams, 18, of Harrison park, Dorchester, was held by police of the Fields Corner station today, the first "candid camera prisoner" in Boston history.

Adams was arrested in connection with a stolen automobile and hit-and-run crash in which the driver escaped. Before his escape, however, his picture was snapped by Paul G. Hauschildt of Lamartine street, Jamaica Plain, a business man, who was at the scene of the crash.

When the picture was developed and taken to the Fields Corner police, officers went at once to Adams' home. Special Officer George W. O'Donnell immediately recognized the youth in the picture.

Police said that at the time of the arrest Adams was wearing the identical clothing shown in the picture.

180 Towns Share In Highway Grant

A total of $1,319,000 today was allotted to 180 Massachusetts towns for highway work by the State department of public works.

Among the towns faring best were Haver and Charlton, each given $16,500, while Rehoboth and Beichertown were not far behind with $16,000 each.

TRAILED BY CAMERA'S EYE—Special Officer George W. O'Donnell with auto thief suspect he traced with aid of civilian's candid camera picture. Seized youth faces court today. Second youth is being hunted in connection with case.

Dionnes Join Quins' Feast

More birthday pictures of the Dionne quintuplets and Dr. Dafee's own story of their daily progress and the modern miracles that rule the lives of the famous little girls will appear in the new 16-page GREEN MAGAZINE with tomorrow's Boston Sunday Advertiser.

CORBELL, Ont., May 28—No outsiders . . . no fussing for a big broadcast . . . just a quiet birthday "at home" with mama and papa and their brothers and sisters.

That was how the famous Dionne quintuplets were celebrating their fourth birthday today—that and a lot of "firsts."

Today, for instance, for the first time the five little girls learned beyond-doubt that birthday cakes are to be eaten, not just punched and pummeled with pudgy, exploring fingers.

The quins are big girls now, and plenty of new delights are in store for them.

ICE CREAM, TOO!

Dr. Allan Roy Dafee, a virtual "Mussolini" to the quins, also decided to permit them a little ice cream.

In addition to these gastronomic delights, the quins will have Papa Olivia and Mama Elsie Dionne sitting with them at the birthday table, with their brothers and sisters—all but the older ones who are away at school.

This will be their third birthday celebration in the Dafee nursery, and perhaps, if proposed plans materialize, the last.

TWO LAWYERS NEEDED

Meanwhile Papa Olivia Dionne looked ahead 14 years to the time when his daughters will no longer be wards of the King and decided he needed a couple of lawyers in the family.

The quintuplets will be under government-appointed guardianship until their 18th birthday, when Dionne expects control to revert to the parents until Yvonne, Annette, Cecile, Emilie and Marie take charge of their own affairs.

Asked why he thought two lawyers would be needed, Dionne said: "Well, don't you need at least two these days?"

He didn't nominate any of his four sons for a law career but he was hopeful that Ernest, now 12 and attending a boarding school near Ottawa, would train for either the bar or the priesthood.

New Rain Of Sweeps

Continued From First Page

ant street, Charlestown.

Just Mary and I, 1345 Warren street, Roxbury.

Foole, 45 McCarthy street, Franklin.

Bob and P. Smith, 128 St. B. toph street, Boston.

Old Mike Again, 46 Neptune road, East Boston.

R. F. Downey, 14 Grandfield street, Dedham.

H. F. Tuxbury, 51 Federal street, Newburyport.

To Help Folks, 102 Broad street, North Attleboro.

P. F. Noonan and others, 14 Summit street, Clinton.

John Goodwin and family, 17 Franklin street, Plymouth.

Carmen McCormack-Melba Caruso, care of William F. Powers, 112 M street, South Boston.

Virginia and George, 889 N. Montello street, Brockton.

The Ed Sis Sol Family, 14 Borne street, Dorchester.

Mrs. L. Goldberg, 15 Washington street, Dorchester.

Francis and Helen Shen, 59 Belmont street, Charlestown.

Thomas Collins, 18 Westville street, Dorchester.

Zinc, Setuata street, Arlington.

Charlie Konopky, 97 Douglas street, Providence, R. I.

A Forgotten Soldier, 34 Hull street, Boston.

Quins' Diet Model for Children

NORTH BAY, Ont., May 28 (INS)—A typical week's menu of the Dionne Quins was made public today as a model menu for children of the same age. Here is what they eat:

MONDAY: Breakfast—Orange juice, soft boiled eggs, bacon, cereal, milk, brown bread toast. Dinner—Browned beef, string beans, potatoes, caramel pudding, biscuits. Supper—Cereal, brown bread and butter, fruit salad and rusks, milk.

TUESDAY: Breakfast—Poached eggs, bacon, brown bread toast, cereal, milk. Dinner—Browned lamb, potatoes and peas, custard, biscuits. Supper—Oatmeal porridge, biscuits, brown bread and butter, milk.

WEDNESDAY: Breakfast—Scrambled eggs, brown bread toast, cereal, milk. Dinner—Beef broth, broiled beef, beans, potatoes, dessert, chocolate pudding, biscuits. Supper—Oatmeal porridge, brown bread and butter, rusks, apple-sauce, milk.

THURSDAY: Breakfast—Same as Monday. Dinner—Browned chicken, carrots, potatoes, dessert, banana with pineapple juice, biscuits. Supper—Oatmeal porridge, brown bread and butter, rusks, prune whip, milk.

FRIDAY: Breakfast—Same as Tuesday. Dinner—Beef broth, broiled fish, potatoes, string beans, floating island dessert, biscuits. Supper—Cereal, brown bread and butter, rusks, biscuits, apple-hip, milk.

SATURDAY: Breakfast—Same as Wednesday. Dinner—Beef, spinach, potatoes, graham biscuits, pie. Supper—Oatmeal porridge, brown bread and butter, biscuits, jellied fruit, milk.

SUNDAY: Breakfast—Same as Monday. Dinner—Browned lamb, asparagus tips, potatoes, creamed rice pudding with raisins, biscuits. Supper—Cereal, brown bread and butter, rusks, and soda biscuits, milk.

Eight ounces of milk are given to each child at each meal. At dinner and supper, daily, lettuce and raw carrots or lettuce and tomatoes or celery are added to the menu.

'Love Slayer' Pleads:

'I'm Not Crazy' Longs for Kin

NEW YORK, May 28—Donald Carroll, Jr., acquitted of the murder of his sweetheart, Charlotte Matthiesen, today faced the possibility of a new and Gruelling ordeal—a trial to determine his sanity.

Bewildered by a verdict which pronounced him innocent yet did not set him free, the 18-year-old schoolboy paced his cell on the verge of collapse.

"I want to see my father and mother," he pleaded. "I want to know if my mother is all right."

Because his mother was not present in court when the jury returned its verdict, Donald is obsessed with the idea that she is ill. Jail rules do not permit her to see him until Tuesday, the day which he is to be committed to Bellevue Hospital for mental examination.

"I'M NOT CRAZY"

"I'm not crazy," he protested. "I'm sane. Why do I have to go through this?"

He must submit to this fresh ordeal because the blue ribbon jury which acquitted him of murder found him "not guilty by reason of insanity. Under this verdict, it is mandatory for the court to order his present mental condition established.

If alienists pronounce him sane, Judge Thomas Downs, who presided at the trial and ordered Donald remanded for observation, will entertain a motion for his dismissal.

BOY SORROWFUL

The boy was more sorrowful than impatient over this postponement of freedom.

"Are you happy at the verdict?" Donald was asked.

The boy shook his head. "Not very," he said. "I'm grateful. I don't think I'll ever be very happy without her."

"Her" is Charlotte, who begged him to kill her and then himself because "death is so beautiful." He cannot forget that she is dead, by his hand if by her own will, and that he still lives because he had not the courage to follow her.

67 YEARS WED

BURLINGTON, Vt., May 28 (AP)—Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Savoy of Milton, today celebrated their 67th wedding anniversary. The parents of 13 children, nine of whom are living, Savoy is 88 and his wife, 85.

Probe Hollywood Death of Beauty

HOLLYWOOD, May 28 (INS)—In Hollywood a scant two weeks, in search of a screen career, Julia Hes, beautiful 18-year-old brunette, was found dead in her apartment.

As a bottle containing sleeping tablets was found near the body police opened an investigation. Miss Hes, who came from Belts Grove, Ill., was found by her sister, Agnes.

Advertisement

Lose Unsightly

FAT!

Quickly—Safely with WATE-OFF

The new improved WATE-OFF WAT makes this possible—without endangering health—without use of harmful drugs or weakening laxatives—without strenuous exercising—without starvation diets. Get your Nature Food Centres store today and purchase a box of WATE-OFF Tablets. You've seen these tablets advertised in such fine magazines as Pictorial Review, Physical Culture and others, at $1.15. Now, at the new reduced price, they will cost you only $1.15. You take these tablets at the rate of from 3 to 8 a day, according to the amount of weight you want to lose. You take them along with your meals and, as you will find, the WATE-OFF WAT instructs you to eat three generous, appetite-satisfying meals a day—every day. In other words, no starvation diets is required when you follow the WATE-OFF WAT—no strenuous exercising—and, above all, no dangerous drugs are used in WATE-OFF Tablets—none whatever. This is positively guaranteed. WATE-OFF is so safe at all Nature Food Centres stores.

Affidavit

NO HARMFUL DRUGS

I hereby certify that WATE-OFF Tablets contain no diuretic—no blood extracts—no harmful salt laxatives or other dangerous drugs of any kind. (Signed) Robert Platt, Chemist

NATURE FOOD CENTRES STORES

BOSTON—72 Tremont St., 192 Massachusetts Ave., 1 Cambridge—675 Mass. Ave., 198—201 State St., Woburn—568 Main St., Providence—94 Washington St., Fall River—1211 Main St., Springfield—1221 Main St.

Expert Tells About Films and Stars

Kiesling of M. G. M.
Pays Visit to Boston

By ANN MARSTERS

There's hardly a question about Hollywood, the making of movies, or about the stars themselves which Barrett C. Kiesling couldn't answer for you.

Mr. Kiesling, author, lecturer and publicist from Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer studios, has arrived in Boston in the midst of a six months' tour of 72 cities.

So here's your chance to ask him about Hollywood and its stars. Of course—he'll have to anticipate your questions, but here's something which, he thinks, should answer one of them.

"What," he said, "is the main difference between the life of a movie star and that of the average individual? The answer is one word—privacy. It's a thing the average person has—and a movie star has not.

ONE EXAMPLE
"The star lives in a goldfish bowl with the world looking on. He can't walk down the street, he can't eat in a public place, he can't travel, without being gaped at or mobbed by a host of fans." Just as an example of this lack of privacy, Kiesling told of the time Clark Gable was dining with a friend. A man came up and said to the friend:

"Don't lean so far forward. My wife can't see what Gable is eating."

There are some questions concerning the movies which Mr. Kiesling would refuse to answer. He won't give you any information of how Hollywood achieves its amazing effect in such pictures as "San Francisco" or "Test Pilot."

COLOR'S THE THING

"The important thing is the illusion," he said, "not how the illusion is made. There are many people who would lose their enjoyment in watching a movie-entertainment, for instance, if they knew just how that earthquake was produced."

As for the future of motion pictures, Kiesling said that eventually all pictures will be produced in color.

"We are merely waiting for the color process to get closer to nature," he said. "It is being improved all the time, and there is no doubt but that some day, black and white movies will be things of the past."

HOLLYWOOD HIS OPEN BOOK—Barrett C. Kiesling, author, lecturer and publicity director for Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer studios who is visiting here on tour of 72 cities. He is shown conversing with Ann Marsters, Boston Evening American feature writer, on events, life and notables in the film capital. He says stars dwell in goldfish bowls with world always watching.

Incidentally, the first full-length color picture to be made by M.G.M. will be "Northwest Passage," with Spencer Tracy.

NORMA AS "MARIE"

Kiesling had an interesting detail to tell about "Marie Antoinette," now in production and which, as many of you know, will be Norma Shearer's first screen appearance since the death of her husband, the great Irving Thalberg.

Thalberg had planned on making the picture, but he was delaying production until such time as he believed Norma Shearer to be at the very peak of her career. And "Marie Antoinette," as he visualized it, was to be her supreme achievement.

ment.
"To Thalberg, Marie Antoinette was the most fascinating woman in history," said Kiesling. "He made complete notes on the production of the picture—and all of those precious notes are being used now."

Knows Movies

Says Stars Always
Live in Limelight

Scythia Sails Tonight for British Ports

Two Cunard White Star liners conduct the entire weekend transatlantic passenger traffic of the port of Boston.

Embarking nearly 300 passengers here tonight, the Cunard Scythia sails for Galway, Belfast and Liverpool. Arriving tomorrow afternoon with several hundred returning tourists is the Carinthia. The Carinthia will disembark 93 passengers here.

Sailing on the Scythia are Daniel Carey, Boston real estate and insurance broker, accompanied by his sister, Miss H. L. Carey, and his niece Miss M. L. Carey; Mrs. W. B. Tyler; Mrs. Mary L. Marley and Miss Gertrude W. Copeland, both of Newton; Mrs. Florence M. Shea of Atlantic; Mrs. Margaret Shugrue and her daughter Cecilia, of Milton.

Other Bostonians embarking are Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Peisch, Miss Mildred Knowles, Mr. and Mrs. Richard T. Morey, Miss Sarah Geddes, Mrs. Mary M. Carr and Mrs. Annie M. Supple.

Booked as passengers of the Scythia are Major and Mrs. E. W. Tyrell-Beck and their two children Gwendolyn and Cecil E. who are returning to their home in England where the Major will rejoin his regiment. The Tyrell-Becks are making their fifth attempt to sail. Each time previous illness of the children forced cancellation. The family has been visiting in Salem.

DOCTOR DIES IN CRASH

MOJAVE, Calif., May 28 (AP)—Dr. Allen Buckner Kanaaval, 65, Pasadena physician and former president of the American College of Surgeons, is dead here today after the automobile in which he was riding left the highway and overturned.

Necromancy Sermon Topic

The Lesson-Sermon to be read in Christian Science churches tomorrow will be "Ancient and Modern Necromancy, alias Mesmerism and Hypnotism, Denounced." The Golden Text will be "Take heed that no man deceive you."

Memorial Day services will be observed tomorrow in the First Methodist Church, Temple street, Beacon Hill.

The Rev. Otis R. Flecher will preach.

In the Dudley street Baptist Church there will be special services for Memorial Day at 7:30 p. m. Special music will be rendered by the Walden male quartet.

Advertisement

PIMPLES
LISTER'S LOTION—Helps to Clear Face of Pimples, Excess Oil, Scabs, etc.
LISTER'S OINTMENT—Soothes & Conditions the Irritated Face & Skin... Users Enthusiastic Satisfaction Assured or Money Back!
BOTH PRODUCTS—Listers Skin-Cleaning Lotion & Ointment—only $1 of LIGGETT'S & Other Drug Stores. Folder on Request.
LISTER BROS., Inc., 45 East 42nd Street, N. Y.

7 Face WPA Forgery Charge

Seven persons were named today in indictments brought by a federal grand jury on charges of forgery and passing WPA checks, while three others were cited on counterfeit money charges.

The three named on charges of passing counterfeit money were John Burke, Joseph M. Dougherty, both of Boston, and Joseph Tomm of Norwood.

Those indicted on WPA charges were Judson A. Brown, of Lynn, Warren F. Arnold, of Somerville, Patrick Conlan of Boston, Joseph M. Dwyer of Webster, Adelaide Bourassa, Jose Pinheiro, Jr., and Joaquim Rodrigues, the latter of New Bedford.

GIRL TRUCK VICTIM

DUDLEY, May 28—Funeral services will be held here today for Marie Maynard S., who was killed by a truck operated by her grandfather in the yard of their home.

Strangest Thing

The Boston Evening American will pay $1 each for every "Strangest Thing Ever Seen" picture. Address Strangest Thing Editor, Boston Evening American, Box 866, Boston, Mass.

The strangest thing I ever saw was an elderly lady walking through a crowded subway with a crab in each hand, leaving a trail of crab shells as she ate.—J. BURKE, East Boston.

Tomorrow... in the New 16-Page GREEN MAGAZINE with the SUNDAY ADVERTISER

Another Installment of DASHIELL HAMMETT'S
GREAT MYSTERY STORY

"The Girl With The Silver Eyes"

THE NEW 16-PAGE GREEN MAGAZINE, which comes to you every week with the Sunday Advertiser, is packed with feature stories, articles, fiction, humor and Hollywood news by these well known writers:

LOUIS SOBOL WALTER WINCHELL
MARK HELLINGER
AUSTEN LAKE ANN MARSTERS
LOUELLA PARSONS
GEORGE HOLLAND and OTHERS

DR. DAFOE

MORE

BIRTHDAY PICTURES OF THE

Dionne
Quintuplets
AND
Dr. Dafoe

in a special article

Tells What the Future Holds for These Five Little Girls

BETTY ALDEN

On Beacon Hill

Hope Halsey's
Debut June 18

By BETTY ALDEN

TWO DAYS before their marriage on June 20, Joanne Bass and Marshall Field, Jr., will receive a lot of pre-wedding congratulations when they officiate at the large Saturday afternoon tea dance which Mrs. Fuller Halsey, sister of Ex-Governor Alvan T. Fuller, will give for her debutante daughter, Hope . . .

Guests driving up from Boston to Mrs. Halsey's palatial seaside estate at Little Boar's Head, N. H., June 18, will have no need to consult road maps, for the thoughtful hostess enclosed a small engraved card with her invitations, giving explicit directions for the 47-mile drive to La Vieille, via Newburyport turnpike . . .

Hope has two popular cousins, Lydia and Mary Fuller, to give her all the pointers for attaining a successful social career . . . They are returning from London in time to head the pourers at the tea and give instructions to such new comers to the debutante scene as Janet Pierce, Harriet Bundy, Ethel Lang, Merrill Bunce, Alice Jaques, Katharine MacAusland, Polly Blodgett, Elisabeth Minot, Helen Griffith and a number of others who will pour . . .

Mary Morison, a post-deb friend of Mary Fuller, will also be a pourer together with Margaret Bradley, Mimi Francis, Gabrielle Hurley, Priscilla McCaffrey, Sally Cram, Lenore Reynolds and about ten of Hope's classmates at Westover who are coming on to spend the week-end at Little Boar's Head . . .

The stag line at the buffet supper dance following the tea will be comprised of the following young men who will usher in the afternoon . . . Perkins Bass, brother of Joanne, and son of Ex-Governor Robert Bass and Mrs. Bass of New Hampshire, Robert Henderson, Laurence Morgan, Sumner Kemp, Robert A. Southworth, Sydney Francis, Henry M. Fuller, Richard G. Colbert, Tyson Dines, Jr., Daniel Cheever, Robert J. Cram, Jr., Bradley Higgins, Charles P. Sylvester, Frederick Holdsworth, Paul H. Bonner, Jr., James Woodhouse, Seelye Crosby and several others . . .

Hope, who is an attractive blonde, has had several years of study in Europe and will graduate from Westover next week . . .

Lewis-Potter Ceremony in Wellesley

MR. AND MRS. JOHN AIKEN (Dorothy Forbes) have come on from New York to spend the week-end with Mrs. Aiken's parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. Murray Forbes of Wellesley, and attend the wedding this afternoon of her cousin, Victoria Potter . . . Victoria becomes the bride of William Henry Lewis, Jr., at a small, informal wedding at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Austin Potter of Wellesley . . .

Rev. Philemon F. Sturgis is performing the four o'clock ceremony at which the bride's sister, Mrs. Richard Olney, Jr., is matron of honor, and Gordon Auchincloss, 2d, of New York, best man . . . aside from Mrs. Olney's little daughter, Nathalie, who is flower girl, there are no other attendants . . .

Victoria is wearing a white net gown with an elbow length veil falling from a wreath of orange blossoms and carrying an all white bouquet of sweet peas, stock and larkspur . . . Mrs. Olney's gown is larkspur blue net with a natural straw hat trimmed with blue flowers and streamers, and the flower girl is wearing white net with a wreath of old fashioned flowers in her hair . . .

Mrs. Potter, who is receiving with the bridal couple at the small reception, has chosen a light blue and white sheer costume with navy blue accessories . . . Due to illness the bridegroom's mother, Mrs. William H. Lewis of New York, is unable to be present . . .

The bridegroom, a Harvard graduate, is taking his bride to New York to live . . . She is a graduate of Beaver Country Day and a member of the Junior League . . . Other out of town guests here for the wedding festivities include Mr. and Mrs. Warwick Potter, cousins of the bride, of New York; Mr. and Mrs. Hamilton Potter of Smithtown, L. I., and Mrs. R. Burnside Potter.

Head Pourers

Fuller Sisters to Aid
Cousin at Debut

LYDIA FULLER

MARY FULLER

RETURN HOME SOON—Lydia and Mary Fuller will have an opportunity to relate their exciting experiences studying dramatics in London when they return early in June for the coming-out party of their cousin, Hope Halsey, at a tea dance given on June 18 by her mother, Mrs. Fuller Halsey, at Little Boar's Head, N. H.

Philomatheia
Bridge June 1

Senior Philomatheia winds up the year with a jolster luncheon Wednesday afternoon, June 1, at the clubhouse. Bridge will follow under the direction of Mrs. Mary O'Leary Finucane, chairman of the day and director of reservations.

A group of executive board members are serving on the committee. Among them are Mrs. M. J. McCarthy of Belmont, Mrs. William Bannan of Waltham, Mrs. B. J. Aboarn of Chestnut Hill, Mrs. Daniel J. Holland of Jamaica Plain and Mrs. John J. Williams of Cambridge.

Also helping with arrangements are Mrs. J. G. Hartigan of Chestnut Hill, Mrs. Daniel J. Buckley of Arlington, Mrs. J. E. Ryan of Wellesley, Mrs. E. A. Regan of Cambridge, Mrs. J. P. McDonough of Watertown, Mrs. William Foubly of Belmont, Mrs. Frank Sullivan of Brookline and Mrs. P. A. McCarthy of Brookline.

Pianists
On Program

Main feature on the Sunday Pops bill is Mozart's concerto for three pianos, with J. M. Saroma, Heinrich Gebhard and Arthur Fiedler at the pianos. Glinka's "Russian and Ludmilla" overture, Tchaikovsky's fourth symphony and the "Die Meistersinger" prelude are also featured.

Saroma will play the piano part in Gershwin's "Rhapsody in Blue" at tonight's concert. Other numbers are the polonaise from Tchaikovsky's "Eugene Onegin" opera, Smetana's "Bartered Bride" overture, Chopin's "Minute Waltz," the ballet music from "Faust," Liszt's "Prelude," Komzak's "Girls of Baden" waltzes, the Valerius Kremer "Prayer of Thanksgiving" and the "Entrance of the Gladiators" by Fucik.

The last Sunday Pops is the Pension Fund Concert on June 3.

Bostonians
At Harvard
Grad's Bridal

Miss Mary Washington Hotchkiss, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. Stuart Hotchkiss of Wyndham, East River, Ct., became the bride at noon today of Sydney Measer Williams, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Sydney M. Williams of Wellesley and Peterborough, N. H., before a fashionable audience of New Yorkers and Bostonians in Center Church, New Haven.

WEARS MOTHER'S VEIL

Rev. Arthur Lee Kinsolving of Trinity Church assisted Rev. Oscar E. Maurer of Center Church in performing the ceremony. A wedding breakfast followed at Wyndham.

The bride wore her mother's wedding gown of ivory satin and Carrick-Ma-Croas lace and carried a bouquet of lilies of the valley.

Mrs. William Lage of New York, matron of honor, wore pale yellow chiffon with a bouquet of yellow iris and blue delphinium, and the six bridesmaids were gowned in pale blue chiffon with similar bouquets. They are all Western or Southern friends of the bride with the exception of Cynthia P. Harts of Madison, Ct.

GUESTS AT WEDDING

Richard Williams was his brother's best man, and Bostonians in the usher corps included Arnold H. Williams, Joseph B. Fyffe, Walter P. Bailey, Roland Boyden and John S. Farlow, Jr.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Hunnewell and family, Mr. and Mrs. Francis Blake, Jr., Louise Hunnewell, Mr. and Mrs. Franklin Palmer, Mrs. John Richardson, Sr., H. H. Richardson, Hope Richardson and Katharine Homans were among the Bostonians enjoying the wedding festivities.

The bridegroom, a Harvard graduate, class of '32, will take his bride to Peterborough to live.

Malden Girl
To Wed

One of June's most attractive brides will be Margaret Kelleher of Malden, whose wedding to James Donahue of Medford is scheduled for June 18 in Malden's Immaculate Conception Church.

Her sister, Alice, will be her honor attendant. Bridesmaids include Doris Cahill, and Edna Carroll of Malden, Barbara Donahue of Medford and Mrs. Mary Nowell of Swampscott.

They were all among the guests at the dinner and shower which Doris Cahill of Malden gave at the Fox and Hounds recently in honor of the bride.

Also honoring the future Mrs. Donahue were Mrs. Mary Appleyard O'Mara, Mrs. Helen Moynihan Kelly, Margaret Killalea, Mary Cahill and Beatrice Carroll.

South End Girl, 15,
Wins Essay Prize

Fifteen-year-old Mary P. Peart of Worcester street, South End, was first prize winner in the essay contest held in connection with "Be Kind to Animals Week," the Massachusetts Society for Prevention of Cruelty to Animals announced. An eighth grade pupil in the Everett school she was awarded $10.

Youngsters Show
Pets at Museum

A "kindness to animals" pet show will be held today at the Children's Museum, Burroughs street, Jamaica Plain, where boys and girls under 16 are invited to exhibit their pets. "Eligibles" for the show include dogs, cats, rabbits, guinea pigs, mice, monkeys and ants.

Zaydee
Dejonge
Weds Today

A great many Bostonians are attending the wedding this afternoon in Christ Church, Fitchburg, at which Zaydee Dejonge becomes the bride of Mason Dix Harris, son of Mrs. William Thaddeus Harris of New York. Rev. Vincent B. Daggett is performing the 4 o'clock ceremony. Reception follows at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. Max Emil Dejonge of Fitchburg.

The bride is wearing her mother's wedding gown of deep cream bridal satin with high neck, leg of mutton sleeves of the Gay Nineties style and a long train. Her ancestral lace veil has been in the family for six generations. Today's bride is carrying white gossamer and aspenos.

HER BRIDESMAIDS

The six bridesmaids are carrying lacy bouquets of white lilacs with their gowns of raspberry taffeta, made with puff sleeves and full skirts edged with pleated ruffles. Their hats are Watteau bonnets of matching straw trimmed with taffeta.

They are Mrs. Louis Dejonge, sister-in-law of the bride; Mrs. Rodman Drake de Kay, the former Anne Craven, cousin of the bride and daughter of Rear Admiral Thomas T. Craven, retired; Mrs. Ralph Arnold, a Cousin, Gossamer, another cousin of the bride; Mrs. Edwin B. Dunphy of Chestnut Hill; Mrs. Warren Creamer and Mrs. Sinclair Armstrong, both of Connecticut.

The matron of honor, Mrs. William W. Cogwell (Dorothea Crocker) of Fitchburg, and the flower girl, Lillian Russell, daughter of Mrs. Otis Russell of Lonsburg square, are wearing hydrangea blue taffeta. Mrs. Cogwell is carrying lavender lilacs and the flower girl an old fashioned bouquet.

ART SCHOOL GRADUATE

Bigelow Crocker of Fitchburg is serving the bridegroom as best man.

Following a wedding trip by motor, the couple will live in New York. The bride graduated from the Child-Walker School of Art. She has exhibited her paintings in numerous art shows. Mr. Harris is a graduate of the U. S. Naval Academy at Annapolis and is now engaged in business in New York.

Colorado Girl
His Bride

Mr. and Mrs. Justin C. Walker of Denver, Col., announce the marriage of their daughter, Elizabeth Walker, to Joseph M. Boyd of Boston. The wedding was solemnized last Saturday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Josiah G. Holland, uncle and aunt of the bride.

The bride was attended by her cousin, Miss May Van Wageningen, and Joseph J. Thorndyke, Jr., of New York, Harvard classmate of the bridegroom, were best man.

Mr. and Mrs. Boyd are spending their honeymoon at Colorado Springs and will reside at 223 Beacon street on their return to Boston.

Italian League's Dance Next Week

Lydia DiPietro will entertain a group of members of the Junior League of the Women's Italian Club at buffet supper Monday to make final arrangements for the moonlight supper dance, closing event of the season, at the New Ocean House, the first evening of June.

Among those ushering will be Salvatore Altieri, Henry Fratelli, Raymond Parker, Fred DiMatteo, Alfred Torrielli, Anthony Viola, James Waters, Robert Gila, Anthony Del Monte and John Laguna.

Reception Menus for June Weddings

By MARTHA LEE

Requests continue to come in for ideas on the June wedding question. Usually the planning for the wedding food and drink is the problem of the bride's mother.

The bride-to-be, fairly a-flutter in a haze of white tulle and orange blossoms, is apt to consider food as entirely too prosaic to be considered at such a time.

The traditional wedding cake is always the starting point when considering food. This rich, spicy fruit cake traces its origin back to the time when English brides carried a corsage of wheat as a symbol of plenty.

Perhaps you'll want to follow the old custom of stirring tiny silver favors into the bride's cake. Modern jewelers have invented many of these silver symbols to tell the fortunes of the guests in addition to the usual thimble, penny, ring, button, etc.

As for the decorating of the cake, we are informed that the trend this year is toward using real flowers to crown the bride's cake. A very effective cake gracing the center of a table we observed recently was made in three tiers with the top layer holding a vase covered with icing. The flower motif on the layers were icing flowers, lilies of the valley and orange blossoms.

The vase atop the cake was filled with lilies of the valley sprays fresh from the florist. The place cards were white, mint patties about two inches in diameter decorated with lilies of the valley and the names written in green icing.

So much for the wedding cake. What else shall we serve? Here's a suggestion for a wedding buffet supper which is easily prepared and offers a balanced meal with attractive service.

BUFFET SUPPER

Hot Bouillon Crisp Crackers
Lettuce Newburg Toast Triangles
Celery and Olives Assorted Sandwiches
Fruit Salad with French Dressing
Ice Cream Wedding Cake
Coffee with Cream Mints

LOBSTER NEWBURG

- 6 SERVINGS:
2½ tablespoons butter
2½ tablespoons flour
1½ cups milk
1½ teaspoons salt
Few pinches pepper
2½ cups cracked or canned lobster meat
½ cup cream
1 egg yolk
1½ tablespoons cooking sherry
Buttered toast triangles
- 12 SERVINGS:
5 cups butter
5 cups flour
5 cups milk
5½ teaspoons salt
2½ cups cracked or canned lobster meat
1 cup cream
2 egg yolks
2½ tablespoons cooking sherry
Buttered toast triangles

Melt the butter in a double boiler, add the flour and mix well. Add the milk gradually and cook, stirring constantly until thickened. Add salt, pepper and lobster meat and heat thoroughly. Add the cream mixed with the slightly beaten egg yolk and cook for 2 to 3 minutes longer, stirring gently. Add the sherry just before serving. Serve on toast triangles.

Foundation Cosmetic Urged

BE cosmetic conscious but don't let anybody know about it. Do your powdering and painting in your own room, and consider the job done until you get back there for facial repairs.

Putting powder and rouge on a skin surface that has not been cleaned means that blackheads will soon be on the way. Solid pads force dust into the pores. If a foundation cosmetic is used, powder will stick, like a friend and a brother, no need of powdering for hours.

YOU CAN BE BEAUTIFUL

Are Your Color Make-Up Ideas Chic, Up-to-Date?

THERE'S an intriguing color code in make-up these days . . . a trend to naturalness, expressed in the fuller line of eyebrows as June Lang demonstrates . . . and yet a play on strange, vivid shades on lips, cheeks and eyelids. Arline Gould offers you a key to solve the mystery of chic, new make-up ideas.

By ARLINE GOULD

IF YOU'VE followed enviously with your eyes some smart girl whose make-up was subtle, chic, dazzlingly new, yet without the damning taint of artificiality, all at the same time, and if you've moaned a little because you didn't look that way . . . well, why don't you?

It's true that artistry in color blending is responsible for the whole effect. It's also true that with the color rampage indulged in by Paris and New York you simply must toss overboard all last season's make-up ideas. But no doubt this beautiful creature you observed took advantage of the same color advice you may have.

And we're offering it to you today! We're making up a leaflet that takes word for word, like the faithful following of a beauty litany, the make-up color rules of a beauty expert whose edicts are law all over the world.

She says that this summer you'll be scrambling your colors with reckless abandon. You'll see multi-colors accenting dead white.

If you're going in for a fanfare of colors, perhaps mixing three in a costume, life is apt to be a bit difficult for you unless you seek guidance. When four colors are used, it's still easier to go wrong.

As well as giving you exciting color make-ups to go with all the colors which make the mode, tips on picking the dominant shade in a multi-color affair are invaluable! It's fascinating reading!

To obtain your copy of the "Make-up Color Guide" which tells secrets of chic, dazzling, present-day cosmetic ensembling, write Arline Gould, Boston American, and inclose a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

Apology By Boy May Re-Win Girl

By BEATRICE FAIRFAX

The French have a wise proverb to the effect that to EXCUSE one's self is to ACCUSE one's self.

That is an apt description of the problem that comes to me today from Lawrence, where John K. writes:

DEAR MISS FAIRFAX:

We had actually planned our wedding day, when I introduced her to Jim, a pal of mine who likes to break up couples and then laugh at them. I warned my girl about Jim, and she told me not to worry, that she loved me too much.

All of us took advantage of the fine weather and went on a picnic a week ago. We had a few drinks of beer, and my girl started paying more attention to Jim than to me. In a jealous rage I accused her of loving him. We broke up and I have refused to have anything more to do with her.

Now I'm sorry I was so hasty and miss her terribly. Shall I try to make up and apologize, or should I let her apologize to me, because it was as much her fault as mine? Or shall I try to forget her?

JOHN K.

DEAR JOHN:

If you can steer around an apology by a casual meeting, it will be a safer course. When you see the girl, say "Weren't we silly to quarrel?" or something like that. Unless the sinister Jim has made positive inroads in her affection she'll probably smile and make up. But if she's fallen for the villain, it seems to me you're as well off.

BEATRICE FAIRFAX.

Body Poisons Destroy "Pep"

By ROYAL S. COPELAND, M. D.

Like other organs of the body, the kidneys are subject to certain disorders. They are not quite as prone to infection as other structures. This is fortunate because the kidneys are vital organs and, if damaged, serious possibilities as to health occur at once.

One of the diseases of these organs is known as "pyelitis."

The kidneys are sometimes infected by bacteria or germs that are carried to them by the blood stream. As a rule, the trouble can be traced to a center of infection somewhere in the body. For example, the pyelitis patient may also be suffering from enlarged and infected tonsils, nasal sinuses, teeth or an infection elsewhere. The germs and poisons generated in one of these areas reach the blood and ultimately lodge in the kidneys.

NEGLECT SERIOUS

A victim of pyelitis complains of a lack of "pep," headache and a general "run down" feeling. There is loss of appetite and in most instances fever is present. The condition is often confused with some stomach disorder because of the nausea, vomiting and other familiar symptoms of digestive disturbance.

Neglect of pyelitis is serious. Sweating should be encouraged. This helps the body rid itself of poisons or poisons. Plenty of water should be taken.

Avoid excesses of salt, peppers, spices, fried and greasy foods. At times solid foods should be omitted and the patient kept on a liquid diet for several days. Your doctor will prescribe the necessary internal medication.

There is the problem, not only of the cure of pyelitis, but of how to guard against further attacks. That is why tonsils, if they are infected, should be removed as soon as possible. All other centers of infection should be given attention.

Stylish Smooth Slip Essential

By MARIAN MARTIN

BECAUSE your summer dresses are sheer it is important that the slip you wear with them follow smooth, uncrinkled lines. With this in mind Marian Martin has designed a Princess slip which you can make easily from Pattern 9723 and its accompanying Diagrammed Sew Chart.

He panelled lines fit with superb smoothness yet flare gracefully in the skirt. The straps are cut in one piece with the center panels to keep them from slipping.

Pattern 9723 may be ordered only in misses' and women's sizes 14, 16, 18, 20, 22, 24, 26, 28, 30, 32, 34, 36, 38, 40 and 42. Size 16 slip requires 2½ yards 39 inch fabric.

Send 15 cents in coins or stamps (coins preferred) for each Marian Martin pattern.

Just cut! New Marian Martin summer pattern book. Get your copy now!

Write today for this book. Price of book 15 cents. Book and pattern together only 25 cents.

Send your order to Boston Evening American, Pattern Department, 232 West 18th Street, New York, N. Y.

INVITATION

DEAR MRS. BECKMAN:

I am to be married very soon, and as my mother is a divorcee, remarried, I am in doubt as to how the inviting should be worded. My father is still living, but will probably not attend the wedding.

READER.

Customarily, under these circumstances, the invitations are sent in the names of the mother and stepfather. If your relationship to your stepfather is, as I hope, a pleasant one, you will want to do this. Then the invitation reads:

Mr. and Mrs. George Alan Forbes request the honor of your presence at the marriage of their daughter Mary Anne Wells to Mr. Philip Dew Worthy on Thursday the first of June at four o'clock The United Church Evanston, Illinois.

If you prefer, the third line may read "at the marriage of Mrs. Forbes' daughter" but this is not such good form.

Monograms In Cross-Stitch

SMART, yet so easy to cross-stitch—these attractive monograms that you'll add them to all your "belongings!"

Pattern 1740 contains a transfer pattern of a ½-inch alphabet, two

CROSS-STITCH ALPHABET PATTERN 1740 1½ and one 2-inch alphabet; directions for correct placing of initials; illustrations of stitches.

Send 10 cents in stamps or coin (coin preferred) for this pattern to the Boston Evening American Needlecraft Department, 82 Eighth Avenue, New York, N. Y. Write plainly pattern number, your name and address.

LOVE IN SWINGTIME

by TOMMY DORSEY
and
GEORGE D. LOTTMAN

Biff and Dorsey Go Job-Hunting

What Has Happened:

At a Harvard dance, Tommy Dorsey gave Biff Brown, a talented student, a chance to shine. Biff showed great talent as a clarinetist, his solo with the Dorsey swingsters proving a positive sensation. It delighted everyone except his girl, Harriet Cardale, a Conservatory of Music student who loves classical airs.

Biff wanted to join the Dorsey band but its maestro advised him to finish his college course. However, in about six months, Biff went to New York, looking for a job with Dorsey's band. At breakfast, Biff told Tommy what had happened since he saw him last: about his efforts to give up swing, his ardent but troubled romance with Harriet, and how swing's lure finally overcame him.

Biff parted with Harriet after a dramatic scene. He again voices his blazing desire to become a professional swingster and Dorsey agrees to take Biff to a musicians' "madhouse" the next day.

Now Continue:

CHAPTER SIX

I picked Biff up in my car early in the afternoon and we went over to the musicians' union which occupies a rambling three-story building. It's right under the shadow of the Sixth Avenue elevated and within view of Rockefeller City. Behind it is a parking lot and opposite from the block is the Romy Theater.

Biff was staring at all the sights with popeyes. But he could hardly believe what he saw when we reached the entrance of Local 802.

"Whew!" he whistled. "I never dreamed there could be so many musicians."

There were at least 200 hanging about the entrance, many of them smoking, talking, and waiting. The fellow waiting for a job was a common sight. In fact, whenever you entered the union headquarters you found a musician rubbing your elbow. There was just enough space in which to move.

"Don't be surprised," Biff explained. "There are 10,000 professional musicians in Greater New York."

I took Biff over to the back of the building, where a few men were smoking and waiting. He put Biff in a room and gave him a key. Biff went in and found a room. He was in a room with a door, a window, and a lock. He was in a room with a door, a window, and a lock. He was in a room with a door, a window, and a lock.

"Yes," Biff nodded. "Yes, I understand." Biff nodded. "Yes, I understand." Biff nodded. "Yes, I understand."

"Yes, I understand," Biff nodded. "Yes, I understand." Biff nodded. "Yes, I understand."

"Yes, I understand," Biff nodded. "Yes, I understand." Biff nodded. "Yes, I understand."

"Yes, I understand," Biff nodded. "Yes, I understand." Biff nodded. "Yes, I understand."

"Yes, I understand," Biff nodded. "Yes, I understand." Biff nodded. "Yes, I understand."

BIFF OF HARVARD and Tommy Dorsey visit the "musicians' madhouse." Biff is impressed with everything—even with the daytime autograph questers.

"What's the idea of this?" Biff asked. "I don't know," Tommy said. "I don't know."

"I don't know," Tommy said. "I don't know."

"I don't know," Tommy said. "I don't know."

"I don't know," Tommy said. "I don't know."

"I don't know," Tommy said. "I don't know."

"I don't know," Tommy said. "I don't know."

"I don't know," Tommy said. "I don't know."

"I don't know," Tommy said. "I don't know."

"I don't know," Tommy said. "I don't know."

"I don't know," Tommy said. "I don't know."

"I don't know," Tommy said. "I don't know."

"I don't know," Tommy said. "I don't know."

"I don't know," Tommy said. "I don't know."

"I don't know," Tommy said. "I don't know."

"I don't know," Tommy said. "I don't know."

"I don't know," Tommy said. "I don't know."

"I don't know," Tommy said. "I don't know."

"I don't know," Tommy said. "I don't know."

"I don't know," Tommy said. "I don't know."

THE SAME ANSWER

THE SAME ANSWER

THE SAME ANSWER

THE SAME ANSWER

THE SAME ANSWER

THE SAME ANSWER

THE SAME ANSWER

THE SAME ANSWER

THE SAME ANSWER

THE SAME ANSWER

THE SAME ANSWER

THE SAME ANSWER

THE SAME ANSWER

THE SAME ANSWER

THE SAME ANSWER

THE SAME ANSWER

THE SAME ANSWER

THE SAME ANSWER

THE SAME ANSWER

THE SAME ANSWER

THE SAME ANSWER

THE SAME ANSWER

THE SAME ANSWER

THE SAME ANSWER

THE SAME ANSWER

Definitions of Swingo-lingo Words and Terms

- | | | |
|--|--|--|
| Warden: president of musicians' union local | Woodshed: verb in form of a verb | Gobstick: clarinet improviser |
| Rideman: a singer who can improvise | Grubbox: verb in form of a verb | One-night bookers: small-time agents who place performers in odd jobs for one night |
| Lonchur: classical music | Squashbox: verb in form of a verb | Brought: downcast upset |
| Turkey: a pattern as Ted Hodge might say | Schmooze: verb in form of a verb | Get-off man: swing improviser |
| Paper man: musician who just plays according to the notes | Book man: musician who can read music | Kolo: bick from the sticks |
| Straight: following the arrangement exactly | Stocks: standard orchestration | Wire: a radio broadcasting outfit |
| Crawl: an announcer; a singer with laryngitis | Warbler: the girl vocalist of a band | Dog: an unpopular "populist" commercial, sponsored radio program |
| Velvet men: well-paid musicians | Suitcase: drummer | Ickies: incompetent songwriters |
| Push-pipe: trombone | Gibbox: guitar player | Licorice-stick man: clarinet player |
| Free-lance arranger: not tied to any band | Cats: swingsters | |

Continued Tuesday

Jersey City Says 'No'

Mob Rule in Jersey—Motion picture cameramen set up their sound equipment just before Congressman Jerry O'Connell of Montana tried to make his speech in Jersey City—a speech preposterous by a mob.

F. D. R. at Arthurdale—President Roosevelt is in rare good humor as he visits Arthurdale, W. Va., rehabilitation project. The community, sponsored by Mrs. Roosevelt, has provided homes for 148 mining families of the coal regions of the state.

Death Takes Throttle Ditched engine of Chicago passenger train on which two members of crew made their last stop. Four other crew members and all passengers aboard shared better luck as train left tracks, hurtled embankment and landed, tangled heap, in sandpit.

Age, Age, Sir!

Ship Ahoy---Or Something!

Well, anyway, here's Betty Driscoll, West Somerville, and Mara Margaret O'Connell, Milton, learn-

Riot Takes Police Toll

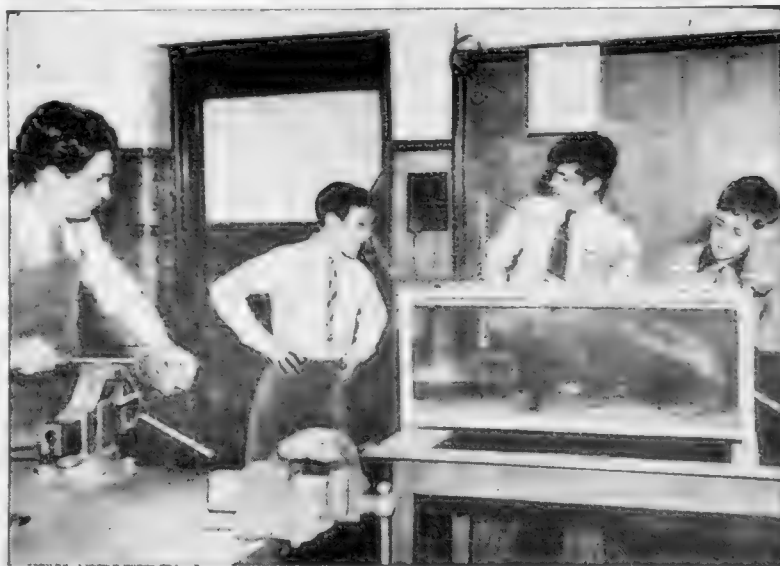

Victims of Violence—Detroit policemen recovering in hospital from wounds received in battle with brass company strikers. Riot started when picket felled bluecoat. Law took it on head, chin and body, but 600 rioters were finally quelled with many casualties of their own. Injured officers are being consoled by unscathed comrades.

(International News Photo)

Going Aloft!

ing their compass, splices, ropes, etc., aboard local trawler so they can act as expert judges in big fishermen's race next fall. Above, Miss Driscoll is seen rigging up like old Mister Sealegs himself.

How's Goldfishing?—It wasn't so good for Calvin Haseltine, caught in act by chums while angling in private aquarium in Grover Cleveland, Jr., high school. Chums are John Dugay, William Hesse, Edward Millane. Calvin only caught a reprimand. However, fish were so-o-o-o SMALL! he didn't want 'em anyway.

(Photo: Evening American Photo)

BOSTON EVENING AMERICAN

SATURDAY, MAY 28, 1939

Memorial Day

MEMORIAL DAY 1938

The Editor Says:

Memorial Day was consecrated to the memory of the men who General Grant led in the Civil War.

In 1938 the memory of those who followed General Lee has been solemnly kept.

More than seven decades have passed. Thinner and thinner grow the ranks of the G. A. R. and the Confederate Army. Larger and the numbers of those who follow in their graves.

And today another army serves with the "boys in blue" and the "boys in gray." The "boys in blue" are the army of the living. The "boys in gray" are the army of the dead. It is the army of the living that fought for the Republic in Civil War and in the World War.

Today, the living Memorial Day. IT IS A GOLD STAR MOTHERS DAY NOW. Let us, Monday, celebrate it with respect and with gratitude.

A MENACE

is a menace to the peace and to the future of the Commonwealth. It is a menace to the peace and to the future of the Commonwealth. It is a menace to the peace and to the future of the Commonwealth.

The commission accuses Communists of recruiting young Americans for service with the Red forces in Spain.

It says "Seditious doctrines are being REGULARLY ADVOCATED throughout the Commonwealth and that a great number of admittedly Communist organizations exists in this state."

It accuses the teachers' attempts of revolutionists to incite citizens to rebellion against the government.

It accuses "Communists and their sympathizers, setting up a pseudo plea for protection of civil liberties, seek to engender discontent, hatred and bitter class hatred, seek to subvert in America a plan of government ruthlessly barbaric and without even a semblance of a plan which sanctions torture, persecution and liquidation of the non-conformist."

The report concerns every citizen worthy of the name. All should read it.

It is an accurate picture and a deserved condemnation of the traitorous activities of individuals and groups who accept our hospitality only to plot our destruction.

TUFTS SENIORS

show good judgment; they vote Henry Ford the "greatest man in the country" and declare Ambassador Joseph P. Kennedy a "logical choice for President of the United States."

The seniors credit to the students and to the college they attend. The seniors are proof that the collegiate mind knows army and wants it to receive proper recognition.

In Henry Ford the seniors see individualism, persistence and the determination to forge ahead that has been one of America's great assets in all periods and crises.

In Ambassador Kennedy, they see a self-made man—one whose own efforts removed the ultimate of success and still strive to be of service to his fellowmen.

Politicians and self-seekers may fool themselves and others. But they do not fool the good, clear-thinking sons of Tufts.

The Political Parade

By GEORGE ROTHWELL BROWN

WASHINGTON, May 28

SOUTH CAROLINA, most solidly Democratic state in the South, has first Dixie's spinning wheel against a third term for Mr. Roosevelt.

Mr. Roosevelt's victory in the New Deal that a New Deal candidate is nominated in a third term platform by the most Democratic national convention. South Carolina Democrats may vote against that ticket in the NATIONAL ELECTION without sacrificing their party standing as Democrats in the State election.

This is the sign of the times, the respect by the state Democratic convention the other day of the old Ben Tillman party law, perhaps among whom inspired tribute to the party nominee for President by an registered Democrats voting as Democrats in the State elections.

MANY Southern Senators, who regard this as a sign to the Democratic Party of South Carolina as the most significant development in months, see in a Southern revolt against the continued leadership of President Roosevelt after 1940.

They expect other Southern States to follow the same line, making against the same line, to the Democratic Party.

Southern States, which are not quite clear in their minds what to do, are not yet ready to do so. They are not yet ready to do so.

They are not yet ready to do so. They are not yet ready to do so. They are not yet ready to do so.

They are not yet ready to do so. They are not yet ready to do so. They are not yet ready to do so.

They are not yet ready to do so. They are not yet ready to do so. They are not yet ready to do so.

They are not yet ready to do so. They are not yet ready to do so. They are not yet ready to do so.

They are not yet ready to do so. They are not yet ready to do so. They are not yet ready to do so.

They are not yet ready to do so. They are not yet ready to do so. They are not yet ready to do so.

They are not yet ready to do so. They are not yet ready to do so. They are not yet ready to do so.

They are not yet ready to do so. They are not yet ready to do so. They are not yet ready to do so.

They are not yet ready to do so. They are not yet ready to do so. They are not yet ready to do so.

They are not yet ready to do so. They are not yet ready to do so. They are not yet ready to do so.

They are not yet ready to do so. They are not yet ready to do so. They are not yet ready to do so.

They are not yet ready to do so. They are not yet ready to do so. They are not yet ready to do so.

They are not yet ready to do so. They are not yet ready to do so. They are not yet ready to do so.

They are not yet ready to do so. They are not yet ready to do so. They are not yet ready to do so.

They are not yet ready to do so. They are not yet ready to do so. They are not yet ready to do so.

They are not yet ready to do so. They are not yet ready to do so. They are not yet ready to do so.

They are not yet ready to do so. They are not yet ready to do so. They are not yet ready to do so.

They are not yet ready to do so. They are not yet ready to do so. They are not yet ready to do so.

They are not yet ready to do so. They are not yet ready to do so. They are not yet ready to do so.

What of Today? Tomorrow?

Big Tourist Season for Massachusetts

From presidents and princes to the average family, recreation seekers come to New England, most of them in the summer months, in such increasing numbers that recreation has become another industry.

Previously, the governors of Maine and New Hampshire have discussed the 1938 outlook in their states for the recreation business.

Today Massachusetts speaks!

By PAUL WHELTON

Boston Evening American Staff Writer

Despite generally depressed conditions in other sections of the country, Massachusetts, this year has SUBSTANTIAL EVIDENCE that her summer tourist business will EQUAL OR SURPASS that of previous years.

This assurance was given to the Boston Evening American today by Governor Charles F. Hurley himself.

And summer tourists make for the creation of new jobs, paid for out of the playtime dollars spent by the recreation seekers.

"The growing realization of the importance of the recreation industry," said Governor Hurley, "was one of the impelling factors which led to the establishment, a little less than a year ago, of the Massachusetts Development and Industrial Commission."

"AS GOVERNOR OF THE COMMONWEALTH I KNEW THAT WE HAVE A LARGE STAKE IN RECREATION, AND I KNEW THAT IF WE WERE TO MAKE THE MOST OF OUR MANY ADVANTAGES WE MUST TAKE AGGRESSIVE ACTION."

"For several months last fall and winter, this five-man impact board concentrated its efforts on industry with commensurate results."

The commission now is expending every effort to publicize the natural charms, man-made advantages and historical riches of Massachusetts.

ALREADY THIS SEASON WE HAVE SUBSTANTIAL EVIDENCE THAT THE SUMMER TOURIST PERIOD IN MASSACHUSETTS WILL BE EQUAL OR SURPASS IN VOLUME OF PREVIOUS YEARS.

"To add to the fact that the forward-looking, aggressive steps the state has taken to make known its advantages are playing a large part in bringing unprecedented numbers of visitors within our borders."

"THE OFFICE OF THE DEVELOPMENT AND INDUSTRIAL COMMISSION IS RECEIVING THOUSANDS OF INQUIRIES EACH WEEK FROM PEOPLE WITH A DEFINITE INTEREST IN COMING HERE THIS SUMMER."

"These inquiries come spontaneously, or as a result of extensive newspaper advertising, or from various kinds of literature distributed by the commission."

"Before the peak of the season is reached, the commission will have sent out more than 150,000 folders and pamphlets, thousands more of guest stickers, with suggestions for safe and pleasant driving, and an unpredictable number of individual letters giving information about the state."

"Our newspaper advertising has included special attention to summer travel, and for the first time, a special section in the paper is devoted to the state's advantages."

"OUR VISITORS ARE A NATIONAL AND EVEN AN INTERNATIONAL ONE AS THESE INQUIRIES SHOW."

"CALIFORNIA, ALASKA AND SOUTH AND CENTRAL AMERICA ARE LISTED AS FAR IN ADDITION TO A VERY HEAVY CONCENTRATION IN THE EAST AND MIDDLE WEST."

"For more than two generations now, Massachusetts has had the pleasure of paying host to summer visitors from all parts of the world."

"WHAT BRINGS THEM HERE?"

"Indisputably the salt water is one of the great attractions. People come just to look at it or to take a short voyage on it or for the many sports, drives and of course, a great many are attracted by the unparalleled scenery."

"Next in rank of appeals to visitors is the wealth of historical landmarks, associations with the great men and women of years ago."

"THEY REMIND ALL AMERICANS OF THE ACCOMPLISHMENTS IN DEMOCRATIC GOVERNMENT, IN EDUCATION, IN RELIGION AND IN SOCIAL SERVICE."

"Our architecture and our art have a distinctive charm also, reminders of the great tradition of craftsmanship. And most valuable of all, from the recreation standpoint, is the moderate, invigorating climate, the great variety of scenic and sports areas."

"WE RIGHTFULLY TAKE GREAT PRIDE IN OUR STATE OF MASSACHUSETTS—ITS NATURAL CHARMS AND ITS COLORFUL HISTORY."

"As governor of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts, I want to take this opportunity to invite, personally and cordially, people everywhere to pay us a visit this summer."

"I want to urge upon every one of you, residents of Massachusetts, to extend this invitation to your friends everywhere."

Marry-Go-Round

By HELEN ROWLAND

MY HUSBAND has pilfered a "Do Not Disturb" sign from some long-suffering hotel, which he now hangs on his bedroom door at home when he wants to sleep late mornings.

This bright idea may appeal to lots of married men as a defense mechanism against wives and breakfast calls on Sunday mornings. There are times when every man likes to feel that he is absolutely ALONE with his soul, his thoughts and his newspaper.

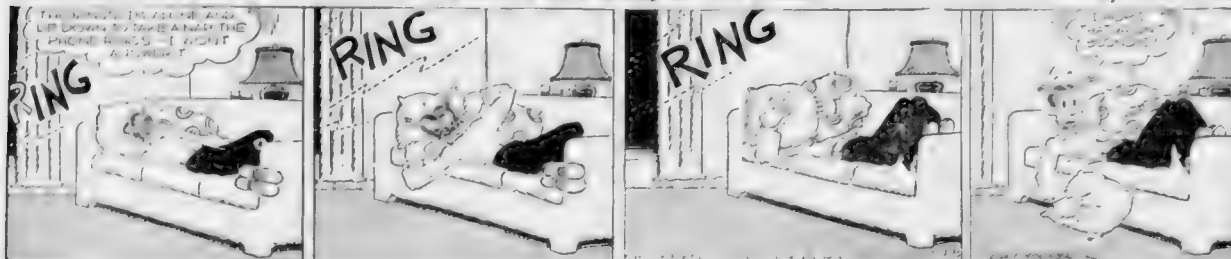

It is hard for a woman to understand this retiring spirit in man; because, to a woman, the most beautiful and sacred thoughts are just something to SHARE with somebody.

A man, on the other hand, is full of reticences. It isn't that he really has anything shameful to hide from his wife or his boss. It is only the times to have a secret of his own—to feel that he is just a little bit mysterious.

BLONDIE

She'll Put a Ring in His Nose!

By Chic Young

POPEYE

"But-Tinsky!"

Listen to Popeye Monday, Wednesday and Friday at 6:15 p.m. on station W.E.I.

By E. C. Segar

SKIPPY

A Burning Question

By Percy L. Crosby

JOE PALOOKA

A Bargain With the Sheik

By Ham Fisher

HENRY

He Wanted the "Nearest"

By Carl Anderson

KRAZY KAT

Two Sides to Every Story

By Herriman

Memorial Day Services Set For Week-End

MR. BOSTON

Armstrong-Ross
Go Is Headache

Title Bout Has Proved a Flop

—BY JACK CONWAY

THE BARNEY ROSS-Henry Armstrong bout, which will be staged by Mike Jacobs' Twentieth Century Club at the Garden Bowl, Long Island, on next Tuesday night, has become a pugilistic headache for the promoter as well as for the boxers and the fans.

MR. BOSTON

Instead of folks being highly steamed up over the meeting between the feather-weight champion and the boss of the welterweights everybody is rooting to get the match out of the way. It is agreed that the contest never should have been put in so near the Louis-Schmeling tussle, and that it would have been better to have delayed it until August when it would not have any serious opposition.

Mike Jacobs is nervous, hoping that the crowd will draw $150,000. Mike is the very property of the Jacobs family, and the Jacobs family is the very property of the Jacobs family. The Jacobs family is the very property of the Jacobs family. The Jacobs family is the very property of the Jacobs family.

Most of these promoters, who have been in the fight business for years, are of the opinion that the fight between Ross and Armstrong is a flop. They are of the opinion that the fight between Ross and Armstrong is a flop. They are of the opinion that the fight between Ross and Armstrong is a flop.

Ross and Armstrong are both young men. Ross is a young man. Armstrong is a young man. They are both young men. They are both young men. They are both young men.

Barney is today going back. He has his share of the goods of the world, and has also married into a wealthy family. Rich fighters lack the recklessness of hungry youngsters eager to get to the top.

Ross continues to rule a betting choice. Most recent wagers have been made at odds of 7 to 5.

New York Interested in Casey

I FOUND during my recent trip to New York that the big town is much interested in Steve Casey, heavyweight wrestling champion. Many mal fans asked me numerous questions about the Irishman.

Dan O'Mahoney is still very popular in New York, and there were comparisons of Casey and O'Mahoney.

Yvon Robert, who meets Clark at the Garden on next Wednesday night, also has many supporters in New York. The Frenchman has engaged in some of his best matches in New York.

The stories that appeared in the New York newspapers in regard to the Casey-Robert bout have created the impression that the Irishman was given a gift decision. If it had not been for the disqualification of Robert by Referee Ted Tonneman it is felt Robert would have had better than an even chance of winning.

War Admiral Expected to Win

WAR ADMIRAL is expected to win over Pompoon and the other thoroughbreds entered in the Suburban at Belmont today. A victory will give Sam Riddle, owner of War Admiral, $20,000 which would be some compensation for the loss of the $100,000 purse he expected to win in the War Admiral-Seabiscuit match race.

War Admiral had not had a hard race this year, and I am anxious to see how the son of Man O' War will run if pressed. In the $50,000 Widener Cup race at Hialeah Park, War Admiral shot into the lead at the start, raced down the back stretch with a two length lead, increased his margin to five lengths — the turn when Jockey Charley Kurlinger permitted him to open up, and then coasted through the stretch run for a hollow victory.

When the handicappers were figuring the War Admiral-Seabiscuit race the figures favored the 'Biscuit. The Howard horse had made fast time in California and also at Suffolk Downs. This may have been due to the fact the 'Biscuit had been running on new tracks which were hard.

Even though the figures favored Seabiscuit most of the handicappers planned to pick War Admiral to win.

When the clockers caught Seabiscuit working the mile in 1:42 they felt there was something the matter with the Howard. When it was discovered Seabiscuit had trouble with his knees, Charley Howard did the right thing in asking that the race be called off.

I believe Howard has a real interest in his horse. The Californian has proved himself a sportsman, and would not wish Seabiscuit to compete if unable to show at his best. It would have been an injustice to the public and a terrific blow to racing if the match race had been held with either Seabiscuit or War Admiral not prepared to show at their best.

It is hoped that Seabiscuit and War Admiral will settle the question of racing supremacy in the $50,000 Massachusetts Handicap at Suffolk Downs on June 24. This may develop into the race of the year as it did a year ago.

Yates Leading In British Tilt

Rallies After Trailing

Tron, Scotland, May 28 (AP)—As his opponent got into trouble on the back nine, Charley Yates of Atlanta steadied down today to gain a one-up lead over Cecil Ewing of Ireland at the end of the first 18 holes of their 36-hole final for the British Amateur Golf championship.

Yates, who trailed for most of the first 17 holes, rallied to win the 18th and took a one-up lead. Ewing, who had been leading for most of the first 17 holes, was trapped off the tee.

The Irishman, who started to match the Ewing at odds of 1 to 1, missed a great opportunity to win the match on the 18th hole. In the 19th hole, Yates, who had been trailing, rallied to win the 19th and took a two-up lead. Ewing, who had been leading for most of the first 18 holes, was trapped off the tee.

One three-putt green and a par, drive put the Southern 1 and 2 to Ewing's par 36 for the first time, first time all week that Yates had been behind at the lunch mark.

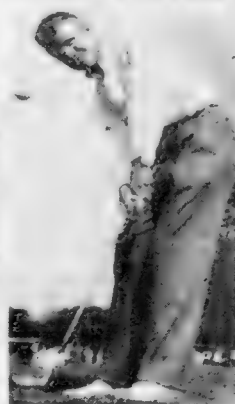

Another straying tee shot put him 2 down at the 10th, he pulled even by taking Nos. 12 and 14 as Ewing went off line for a change. Yates dropped the 15th by three-putting from 20 feet, and then staged his fine finish to go out front for the first time.

Coming off the 18th green, Yates remarked: "This guy's tough. And I just can't seem to make those putts drop."

The only question now about Yates is whether he will be able to hold his lead in the 36-hole final. Yates is a young man, and he is a very good golfer. He is a very good golfer. He is a very good golfer.

Yea, Yates! Headaches Start for Durocher

By WALTER KILEY

Leo Durocher

Yates, who is a very good golfer, is a very good golfer. He is a very good golfer. He is a very good golfer. He is a very good golfer.

Yates, who is a very good golfer, is a very good golfer. He is a very good golfer. He is a very good golfer. He is a very good golfer.

Worcester Crew In Tiger Regatta

PRINCETON, N. J., May 28 (AP)—Twenty-three entries awaited the Worcester crew today in the first round of the annual regatta of the Worcester Yacht Club.

The Worcester crew, which is a very good crew, is a very good crew. They are a very good crew. They are a very good crew. They are a very good crew.

Boxing Results

WATERVILLE, Me.—Raymond Sauer (155 lbs.) scored technical knockout over Mike Medina (135 lbs.) in the first round of the annual regatta of the Worcester Yacht Club.

Sox, Nats in Short Series

Cronin Uses Rookies Bagby, Dickman on Hill

WASHINGTON, D. C., May 28.—The Red Sox Senators series, which has developed into one of the more bitter American League rivalries since Joe Cronin and "Bucky" Harris swapped managerial berths three years ago, will be resumed this afternoon when the Fenway flock invades Griffith Stadium for a two-game engagement.

Harris had the laugh last year when his charges took 18 of 22 decisions from the Sox, and when the Hack Bay boys, on their only previous visit here, this spring, dropped two out of three. It seemed that "Bucky" might enjoy an even louder chuckle at "Frisco Joe's" expense this year.

But the Sox more than gained revenge up in Boston a short while later, when they swept a three-game series to knock the Nats off the roof and take the lead themselves.

And, even though they're going to rely on kid pitchers they're predicting they'll own five straight victories over the Nats before moving on to New York tomorrow night.

EMERSON DICKMAN

Jim Bagby, Jr. is Cronin's first choice for today's opening. Emerson Dickman is the second choice. They are both very good pitchers. They are both very good pitchers. They are both very good pitchers.

HOLIDAY SPECIAL
Name Brand
PUSH BUTTON
AUTO RADIO
Model 1000 $19.95 $17.95
(limited number) Now
SAM'S RADIO & AUTO SERVICE
100 CAMBRIDGE ST. EAST BOSTON
DEEN BARNES

"That's No Gold Shower, Henry"

International News Photograph Service
HENRY ARMSTRONG (BARNEY ROSS)
Henry Armstrong and Barney Ross look sadly out of the boxing commission's window as their welter championship fight is postponed for the second time. New date is next Tuesday. Postponements invariably mean a sharp drop in gate receipts, and neither Henry nor Barney likes it.

Lefty Grove Tells Value of Curve

By LEFTY GROVE
As Told to Austen Lake
CHAPTER V

In our gallery of pitching habits, we have the man who will curl back his thumb when he holds the ball for his curve, the familiar schoolboy trick which my older readers will recall.

Would you believe that there is a pitcher in our league today who has earned a Grade A reputation and who is regarded as one of the most effective men on the circuit, who still uses that method? Well, believe it or not, there is! And yet, few players know about it, so clever is he in covering it up.

Sometimes a pitcher has a curve that is so good that he can telegraph it and still fool the batters. Herb Pennock used to have one of that kind, which was one of the best curves in baseball.

Young pitchers often make the mistake of thinking that the wider a curve breaks the more effective it is. That is not the case.

In fact, some of the best curves in the business break no more than three or four inches, but they break fast just in front of the plate and are doubly hard for a batter's eye to follow, since he cannot see enough of the sudden bend to meet the ball squarely.

DOUBLE PLAY PITCH

Curve balls usually are hit on the ground and for that reason are generally used when the infield is drawn in close for the possible chance at a double play to relieve a tight situation.

Thus, where a right handed pitcher is working against a right handed batter, the curve is broken low and over the outside of the plate so that it will tend to go to the shortstop or the second baseman.

Sometimes it doesn't always work, any more than the other "inside baseball" schemes succeed more than part of the time. But every pitcher must accustom himself to see smart baseball fall and draw comfort from the knowledge that he has done as much as any other man can and deserves no rebuke because a plan has failed.

Be it in mind that every practical baseball man is a percentage player, who knows that over the long range certain plays succeed more often than they fail, and he follows those percentages.

EHMKE'S CURVE

One of the widest breaking curves I have ever seen was owned by Howard Ehmke, who retired from baseball soon after the 1929 World Series, and is now selling waterproof coverings for athletic fields.

When Howard's roundhouse was working it mowed 'em down. The surest proof is the fact that in 1923 he won 20 games for the last place Red Sox. And any man who can win 20 ball games for an eighth-place club, with all the weak backing that it implies, must have stuff.

I'll always remember Ehmke, chiefly for his sensational work in the opening game of the 1929 World Series against the Chicago Cubs.

I am frank to say that when Ehmke was selected to pitch that game I was just as startled as any fan in the grandstand, and as I look back it stands as one of the finest examples of managerial psychology that the modern game has known. The credit for that part of it goes, of course, to Connie Mack.

WILSON'S SURPRISE

It must have looked like certain murder, sending a wornout veteran right-hander against that mob of maulers.

From the sidelines Hack Wilson called over to our bench, "What a dish this is going to be."

And what a dish it was... but not for the Cubs.

Another interesting chapter by Lefty Grove will appear in tomorrow's Boston Sunday Advertiser. (Copyright, 1933, the Boston Evening American.) All rights reserved.

BASEBALL STANDINGS

NATIONAL LEAGUE				AMERICAN LEAGUE
Club	Won	Lost	P. % GB	Club	Won	Lost	P. % GB
New York	22	9	.710	Cleveland	22	11	.667
Chicago	22	13	.629	BOSTON	19	12	.613
BOSTON	18	12	.571	New York	17	12	.586
Cincinnati	18	16	.529 5½	Washington	19	17	.528
Pittsburgh	15	16	.484	Detroit	15	17	.469
St. Louis	12	19	.387	Chicago	12	14	.462
Brooklyn	12	23	.343	Philadelphia	11	19	.367
Philadelphia	9	18	.333	St. Louis	9	22	.290

*Games behind leaders.

RESULTS YESTERDAY

Reds 2, Cards 1 (10 innings).
Cubs 5, Pirates 8.
Brooklyn at BOSTON, rain.
Philadelphia at New York, rain.

GAMES TODAY

Brooklyn at BOSTON.
Philadelphia at New York.
Chicago at Pittsburgh.
Only games scheduled.

Betting Even by Tuesday

By DAVIS J. WALSH

NEW YORK, May 28 (INS)—Nobody being more exhausted than this stoop-shouldered agent by the continued quiescence and repose in connection with what started out to be a gripping encounter for the world's welterweight championship, I can only believe today that, if anyone can possibly profit from all this inertia it must be Henry Armstrong, the colored-chile challenger.

With the weight-rap off for purposes of next Tuesday's third at tempt to conduct the promotion, Henry ought to be close to even money against Barney Ross, the defending champion.

Ross was once 7-5, but that was before Thursday's first postponement because of too much rain. Yesterday the thing was called, I suspect, on account of too much darkness last night. It was raining at noon when the postponement was taken.

$100,000 ADVANCE CLAIMED

Two hours later a man might have contracted sunburn poisoning under a beach umbrella. A sale of $100,000 was claimed on Thursday. Nothing much was sold on Friday. Nothing at all will be sold over the holiday week-end, where everybody leaves town except street cleaners and newspapermen, mentioned in the order of their probable solvency.

And if anybody comes back from his vacation on Tuesday with the change of a quarter, it stands to reason he had a rotten time.

Henry can now weigh what he will, probably a little more than 133 pounds; whereas Ross had him doing 136 at noon, taking off four pounds before nightfall and putting it on back again by day-break.

Ross also was given the privilege of weighing anything under the welterweight limit of 147 pounds, with the result that probably he'll do nearly 143.

HENRY EMOTIONAL

They think, too, that Barney's tractable personality will better carry him over the next few days than will Henry's volatile temperament, although seemingly they forget that one of the outstanding examples of continued delay saw Ross blow the Darby to McLarnin.

However, the idea is that Armstrong will suffer more by contrast, being more emotional, as best shown by the fact that, in action, the gent slavers at the mouth corners and his hands twitch, like a dice shooter on the baby-shoes pass.

'Woe is Me' Rickey

Out to 'Get' Landis

CLEVELAND, May 28 (AP)—The Plain Dealer said today that Branch Rickey, St. Louis Cardinals' vice-president, "is out to 'get' Kenesaw M. Landis, baseball commissioner."

"Rickey's efforts will take the direction of electioneering among his fellow-club executives against reappointment of Landis when his term expires December 15, 1941, the paper says in a staff special from St. Louis.

Rickey "already is said to have the support of Cincinnati, Pittsburgh and Brooklyn in the National and of St. Louis in the American," which means, the Plain Dealer says, "he must persuade four other clubs that their interests demand the installation of a new commissioner."

The paper says the Cardinal official is irked because "Landis has never approved the chain store system of baseball developed by Rickey" and has "used his power to crack down on the Cardinals at every turn."

The paper cited Landis' recent decision making 50 players free agents from St. Louis' minor league properties, and the commissioner's order against releasing Pitchers Elias Johnson and Roy Henshaw to the Cards' International League farm at Rochester to get down to the 23-player limit.

The players appealed on the ground they had not received a thorough trial with St. Louis. All major league clubs had waived on them.

Landis has been baseball's czar since 1921.

School Results

BASEBALL
Cushing 74, Townsend 5.
Eveter 12, Hyde 10 2.
Hampton Academy 10, Hamstead 6.
Manchester West 1, Concord, N. H. 5.
Rochester, N. H. 4, Essex High 2.
St. Johnsbury Acad. H. Newport, Vt. 9.
Springfield Tech 1, Greenfield 1.
Turners Falls 8, Greer 4.
York, Me. 3, Troy Academy 1.
GOLF
Frammingham 6, Wilbur 5.
Watertown 6 1/2, Uxbridge 2 1/2.
TENNIS
Turners Falls 3, Greenfield 2.
WRESTLING
Leicester 36, Garbar 34.

DANDRUFF
eradicated by this wonderful scientific application that brings new health to your hair!
JERIS
ANTISEPTIC HAIR TONIC

Selections ...!

For MONDAY, MAY 30, by

DAVE WILSON
(With "Feed Box Special")

AND

EDDIE HURLEY'S
Graded Handicaps

ALSO: Cleecker's Workout Form and Last Performances

IN THE

RACE SPECIAL EDITION
OF THE
DAILY RECORD

On Sale 10:30 A. M. Memorial Day

Sandy Burr Four-Ball Threat

By BILL GRIMES

Playing away from home the Salem and South Shore teams of the Metropolitan Four-Ball League may experience trouble retaining their advantages over Sandy Burr, which will entertain Bear Hill tomorrow during the sixth round matches.

A week ago Captain Bunny Wilson's West Hingham outfit hung a 10-2 defeat on the Trappala octet, but even that overwhelming victory was not sufficient to keep pace with Salem, which shellshocked Bear Hill 11 to 1.

SALEM LEADS

Captain Kellenberger will take his Salem Whites to Framingham, a course which has stopped many outstanding golfers and one on which the home team has a decided advantage.

South Shore will play Thorny Lea, the defending champions, at Brockton.

Until this season South Shore has never been a threat for league honors, but through the acquisition of Joe Hoffman, Fred Hanson and the Adams brothers South Shore is only three and one-half points in arrears of pacesetter Salem.

Wilson will field a stronger club tomorrow than that which walloped Trappala last Sunday for John Pine will be back in the line up, teamed with Dan Shea, Jr.

SHAKEUP LIKELY

The outcome of the Sandy Burr-Bear Hill match at Wayland may shake up the standing, particularly if the Stoneham team doesn't click better than it did at Salem.

Sandy Burr is still very much in the running, trailing the second place South Shore club by only one point.

The other two matches will be played at Norfolk and Tedesco. Bellevue will dig up a few divots out in Dedham and Trappala will be at Swampscott.

Program Selections At Suffolk Downs

By Bay State News Service, Inc.

1-Night Chase, Evening Time.

Stop Light.

2-Fair Time, Believer, Vitor.

3-Gallop Boy, Whooper, Victorious Ann.

4-Blind Brook, Grace Grier, Stormy Time.

5-Waxwing, Tobacco, Building Trade.

6-Blind Eagle, Battle Jack, Thanksgiving.

7-Beggar, Crusader, Miss Hollywood.

8-Peaceful, Scudder, High Tension.

Weather foggy; track muddy.

Pk. League Standings

EAST DIV. WEST DIV.

Mano Kelly 3 2 Hyde Park 2 2

McDonagh 5 3 11 St. Andrew's 3 10

Clyton 4 4 8 Agnew 4 3 8

Casey 4 5 6 Agnew 4 3 8

Holy Name 3 5 6 Madden 2 4 0

Whites Club 1 8 2 St. Andrew's 2 1 3

GAMES MONDAY (7:15 P. M.)

Mano Kelly vs. Hyde Park

McDonagh vs. St. Andrew's

Clyton vs. Casey

Casey vs. Holy Name

Whites Club vs. St. Andrew's

GAMES MONDAY (7:15 P. M.)

Mano Kelly vs. Hyde Park

McDonagh vs. St. Andrew's

Clyton vs. Casey

Casey vs. Holy Name

Whites Club vs. St. Andrew's

GAMES MONDAY (7:15 P. M.)

Mano Kelly vs. Hyde Park

McDonagh vs. St. Andrew's

Clyton vs. Casey

Casey vs. Holy Name

Whites Club vs. St. Andrew's

GAMES MONDAY (7:15 P. M.)

TABLE OF RUNS

AMERICAN LEAGUE
High for day—Detroit.
Low for day—Chicago.
Team	R	H	E	R	H	E	R	H	E	R	H	E
BOSTON	1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8	9	10	11	12
Cleveland	1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8	9	10	11	12
Chicago	1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8	9	10	11	12
Detroit	1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8	9	10	11	12
New York	1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8	9	10	11	12
Philadelphia	1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8	9	10	11	12
St. Louis	1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8	9	10	11	12
Washington	1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8	9	10	11	12

NATIONAL LEAGUE
High for day—Chicago.
Low for day—Pittsburgh.
Team	R	H	E	R	H	E	R	H	E	R	H	E
BOSTON	1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8	9	10	11	12
Cleveland	1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8	9	10	11	12
Chicago	1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8	9	10	11	12
Detroit	1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8	9	10	11	12
New York	1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8	9	10	11	12
Pittsburgh	1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8	9	10	11	12
St. Louis	1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8	9	10	11	12
Philadelphia	1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8	9	10	11	12

Some Shot

How to Score This Pocket-in-One

WILLIAMSTOWN, Mass., May 28 (AP)—The fortunate scorers of holes-in-one have been given something new to shoot at by William J. Agate of Washington, Conn., Williams College senior—a "pocket-in-one."

Playing the Taconic golf course, Agate reported he got off a mighty shot. The ball had hardly left Agate's club, he said, when John H. Crandall, working 175 yards down the course, straightened up. The ball hit him on the hip and bounced into his pocket.

Giants, All-Stars In Charity Game

NEW YORK, May 28 (AP)—The New York Giants of the National Pro Football League will oppose an all-star team of eastern college graduates Wednesday, September 7, in the third annual football game for a fresh air fund for children.

The all-stars again will be coached by Andy Kerr of Colgate with Fred Swan of Temple serving as line coach. The squad will go into training at Peddie school, Hightstown, N. J., August 22. The Giants will begin their preparations a week earlier at the Blue Hills Country Club, Pearl River, N. Y.

Suffolk Entries For Monday

FIRST RACE—Claiming, $1000, four-year-olds and up, 11:30. 1—St. Andrew's, 2—Hyde Park, 3—Mano Kelly, 4—McDonagh, 5—Clyton, 6—Casey, 7—Holy Name, 8—Whites Club, 9—St. Andrew's, 10—Mano Kelly, 11—Hyde Park, 12—McDonagh.

SECOND RACE—Claiming, $1000, four-year-olds and up, 1:00. 1—St. Andrew's, 2—Hyde Park, 3—Mano Kelly, 4—McDonagh, 5—Clyton, 6—Casey, 7—Holy Name, 8—Whites Club, 9—St. Andrew's, 10—Mano Kelly, 11—Hyde Park, 12—McDonagh.

THIRD RACE—Claiming, $1000, four-year-olds and up, 1:30. 1—St. Andrew's, 2—Hyde Park, 3—Mano Kelly, 4—McDonagh, 5—Clyton, 6—Casey, 7—Holy Name, 8—Whites Club, 9—St. Andrew's, 10—Mano Kelly, 11—Hyde Park, 12—McDonagh.

FOURTH RACE—Claiming, $1000, three-year-olds, six furlongs, 2:00. 1—St. Andrew's, 2—Hyde Park, 3—Mano Kelly, 4—McDonagh, 5—Clyton, 6—Casey, 7—Holy Name, 8—Whites Club, 9—St. Andrew's, 10—Mano Kelly, 11—Hyde Park, 12—McDonagh.

FIFTH RACE—Claiming, $1000, four-year-olds and up, one mile and one-eighth, 2:30. 1—St. Andrew's, 2—Hyde Park, 3—Mano Kelly, 4—McDonagh, 5—Clyton, 6—Casey, 7—Holy Name, 8—Whites Club, 9—St. Andrew's, 10—Mano Kelly, 11—Hyde Park, 12—McDonagh.

SIXTH RACE—Claiming, $1000, four-year-olds and up, one mile and one-eighth, 2:30. 1—St. Andrew's, 2—Hyde Park, 3—Mano Kelly, 4—McDonagh, 5—Clyton, 6—Casey, 7—Holy Name, 8—Whites Club, 9—St. Andrew's, 10—Mano Kelly, 11—Hyde Park, 12—McDonagh.

SEVENTH RACE—Claiming, $1000, four-year-olds and up, one mile and one-eighth, 2:30. 1—St. Andrew's, 2—Hyde Park, 3—Mano Kelly, 4—McDonagh, 5—Clyton, 6—Casey, 7—Holy Name, 8—Whites Club, 9—St. Andrew's, 10—Mano Kelly, 11—Hyde Park, 12—McDonagh.

EIGHTH RACE—Claiming, $1000, four-year-olds and up, one mile and one-eighth, 2:30. 1—St. Andrew's, 2—Hyde Park, 3—Mano Kelly, 4—McDonagh, 5—Clyton, 6—Casey, 7—Holy Name, 8—Whites Club, 9—St. Andrew's, 10—Mano Kelly, 11—Hyde Park, 12—McDonagh.

NINTH RACE—Claiming, $1000, four-year-olds and up, one mile and one-eighth, 2:30. 1—St. Andrew's, 2—Hyde Park, 3—Mano Kelly, 4—McDonagh, 5—Clyton, 6—Casey, 7—Holy Name, 8—Whites Club, 9—St. Andrew's, 10—Mano Kelly, 11—Hyde Park, 12—McDonagh.

TENTH RACE—Claiming, $1000, four-year-olds and up, one mile and one-eighth, 2:30. 1—St. Andrew's, 2—Hyde Park, 3—Mano Kelly, 4—McDonagh, 5—Clyton, 6—Casey, 7—Holy Name, 8—Whites Club, 9—St. Andrew's, 10—Mano Kelly, 11—Hyde Park, 12—McDonagh.

ELEVENTH RACE—Claiming, $1000, four-year-olds and up, one mile and one-eighth, 2:30. 1—St. Andrew's, 2—Hyde Park, 3—Mano Kelly, 4—McDonagh, 5—Clyton, 6—Casey, 7—Holy Name, 8—Whites Club, 9—St. Andrew's, 10—Mano Kelly, 11—Hyde Park, 12—McDonagh.

Twelfth RACE—Claiming, $1000, four-year-olds and up, one mile and one-eighth, 2:30. 1—St. Andrew's, 2—Hyde Park, 3—Mano Kelly, 4—McDonagh, 5—Clyton, 6—Casey, 7—Holy Name, 8—Whites Club, 9—St. Andrew's, 10—Mano Kelly, 11—Hyde Park, 12—McDonagh.

Look Out for the '8 Ball'

MAX SCHMELING gets in trim for his world's championship battle with the Brown Bomber, Joe Louis, by knocking the billiard ball about in his training camp at Spectacular, N. Y. But be careful Maxie, the "eight ball" may be lurking around. Don't let him get in front of you. Maxie's partner is Otto Petri, former cycling star.

Five Harvard Teams See Action Today

Five Harvard sports teams will go into action today, all contests being scheduled away from Cambridge. With the approach of final examinations, this will be the last year for Harvard athletes to compete in the spring season, although the baseball team and the crew will not conclude their seasons until late in June.

Highlighting this afternoon's program is the Harvard-Holy Cross baseball game at Worcester, the return game to be played at Soldiers Field on June 4. Ed Ingalls, Harvard, and Art Kenney of the Crusaders will probably get the starting assignments on the mound.

Captain Dolph Samborski's Harvard freshman baseballers will end their season with the annual game against the Eli club at New Haven today. The varsity and jayvee crews will race against underdog Columbian shells on the Harlem river, New York, in a final bit of competition before the classic duel with Yale on the Thames next month.

The varsity polo team will face the Army riders at West Point this afternoon in the second match of the spring season. Harvard defeated Yale, 8-6, last week at Myopia Hunt Club, Hamilton, and will be out to make it two straight over the Cadets.

60 Yachts Sail At New London

NEW LONDON, Ct., May 28 (AP)—Sixty cruising yachts sailed out of New London harbor today on the annual two-day off soundings club race from this city to Duck Island, off Clinton, Shelter Island, off Greenport, L. I., and return. The race is patrolled by the CG-2265, a Coast Guard craft.

Big League Stars

Bill Lee and Gabby Hartnett, Cubs—Lee blanked Pirates with six hits and Hartnett clouded homer and two singles in 5-0 victory. Hank Greenberg, Tigers—Walloped 4-0 over homer and two singles in 5-3 victory over White Sox. Johnny Vander Meer, Reds—Lined Cardinals to five hits and fanned ten in 2-1, ten inning triumph in first night game.

Three Sox In Batting 'First Ten'

By the Associated Press. Big League pitchers decided this week it was time to do something about Joe DiMaggio and Ducky Medwick. So they did it.

As a result, the Yankees' jolter and the Cardinals' cloutier, who were riding along serenely at the head of their respective league batting races only a week ago, were dropped, at least temporarily, out of the running.

DiMaggio, getting only five hits in 22 times at bat, sank 61 points to 370 for fifth place in the American League, while Hal Trosky, Cleveland's big gun, regained the lead with 383.

Medwick slumped even more, collecting only three safe blows in 23 chances and dropping 66 points. This left him with a .337 mark for the season, and he fell to eighth place in the National League, and batted Connie Lavagetta, the Dodgers' third-sacker, back to the top with 390.

The Red Sox have three men among the leaders in the A. L., though Lazzari is now out of the lineup. The first ten in each league:

AMERICAN LEAGUE
Player	Team	R	H	E	R	H	E	R	H	E	R	H
Trosky, Cleveland	25	107	21	41	383
Stearns, Chicago	25	97	13	31	383
Cronin, Boston	25	94	26	37	374
Averill, Cleveland	33	125	30	41	374
DiMaggio, New York	18	13	17	370
Hays, Boston	25	61	10	33	361
Chapman, Philadelphia	31	118	27	41	347
Fox, Boston	27	101	14	36	350
Ruff, New York	28	111	20	39	343
Travis, Washington	36	138	31	48	331

Suffolk Mutuels

For Friday, May 27

1-2-3-7 Races 294.00

1-2-3-7 Races 184.00

7 Races 200.00

FREE THE NEW WONDER SYSTEM BIG PROFITS WEEKLY ON $20 CAPITAL FOR FREE COPY WRITE BECOR PUB CO 618 FOX ST BURLINGAME, CALIF.

"BRINGING 'EM BACK ALIVE"

DAVE WILSON'S exclusive story, told for the first time, of a race horse owner who has revived broken down turf winners with a scientific treatment.

BASEBALL LEFTY GROVE

gives youngsters inside tips on pitching.

BILL GRIMES

reviews the lives of two great ball stars.

JOE CASHMAN

writes his concluding chapter on the career of Tom Lawkey.

AUSTEN LAKE

MR. BOSTON BY JACK CONWAY

watch for these in tomorrow's

SUNDAY ADVERTISER

Waxwing Wilson's Shoe

FIRST RACE—Three-year-olds, claiming, purse $1000, six furlongs:
F. P. Horse 106 F. A. Smith 107
Night Chase 106 F. A. Smith 107
Evening Time 106 F. A. Smith 107
Stop Light 106 F. A. Smith 107
Maxine 106 F. A. Smith 107
Running Free 106 F. A. Smith 107
Lancet 106 F. A. Smith 107
Dim Hope 106 F. A. Smith 107
Liberty Torch 106 F. A. Smith 107

SECOND RACE—Four-year-olds and up, claiming, purse $1000, six furlongs:
Believer 112 Driscoll 112
Fair Time 112 Driscoll 112
M. B. Blonde 112 Driscoll 112
Curtains 112 Driscoll 112
Vixen 112 Driscoll 112
M. B. Nick 112 Driscoll 112
Flying Victory 112 Driscoll 112
Trotter Trotter 112 Driscoll 112
Yonemacher 112 Driscoll 112
Caribbebrook 112 Driscoll 112
Huron, Maxwell 112 Driscoll 112
Richards 112 Driscoll 112

THIRD RACE—Four-year-olds and up, claiming, purse $1000, six furlongs:
Galen Boy 114 Turner 114
Fast Express 114 Romaine 114
Victorious Ann 114 Romaine 114
Hastings 114 Romaine 114
Whisper 114 Romaine 114
Dead Calm 114 Romaine 114
Good Actor 114 Romaine 114
Prince Sador 114 Romaine 114

FOURTH RACE—Four-year-olds and up, claiming, purse $1000, one mile and 70 yards:
Blind Brook 112 Driscoll 112
Grace Grier 112 Driscoll 112
Story Time 112 Driscoll 112
Manda's Baby 112 Driscoll 112
Paradise 112 Driscoll 112
Flowers Lady 112 Driscoll 112
Monet Echo 112 Driscoll 112
Vice Larkie 112 Driscoll 112
El Puma 112 Driscoll 112
Droll Story 112 Driscoll 112

FIFTH RACE—Four-year-olds and up, claiming, purse $1000, one mile:
Waxwing 112 Driscoll 112
Tobacco 112 Driscoll 112
Building Trades 112 Driscoll 112
Bumble Buzz 112 Driscoll 112
Machob 112 Driscoll 112

SIXTH RACE—Four-year-olds and up, claiming, purse $1000, one mile:
Blind Eagle 114 Porter 114
Thanksgiving 114 Bierman 114
Shuttle Jack 114 Bierman 114
Tudley Weed 114 Bierman 114
Deep Road 114 Bierman 114
Sea Voyage 114 Bierman 114
Upstate 114 Bierman 114
Stage Beauty 114 Bierman 114
Sherry's Rock 114 Bierman 114
Warlike 114 Bierman 114
Miss Madeline 114 Bierman 114

SEVENTH RACE—Three-year-olds, claiming, purse $1000, one mile:
Miss Hollywood 112 Bierman 112
Brogan 112 Bierman 112
Akhurst 112 Bierman 112
Crescent 112 Bierman 112
Hasty March 112 Bierman 112
My Buddy 112 Bierman 112
Old Main Road 112 Bierman 112
Consider Me 112 Bierman 112

EIGHTH RACE—Four-year-olds and up, claiming, purse $1000, 1 1/4 miles:
High Tension 111 No boy 111
Scudder 111 No boy 111
Erin's Sun 111 No boy 111
Baby War 111 No boy 111
Mad Frog 111 No boy 111
Bumble Buzz 111 No boy 111
Latter Day 111 No boy 111
Ray Buddy 111 No boy 111

By DAVE WILSON

(Selections for Heavy Track)

BEST BET—WAXWING, 5TH RACE

Blind Eagle, mighty stretch runner from the Chicago stable of Mrs. Emil Denmark, should streak to an easy victory in the $7500 added Constitution Handicap, mile feature at Suffolk Third to Bourbon King and Mythical King in the historic Chesapeake stakes this spring at Havre de Grace, the Eagle should experience little difficulty in heading this less-capable field of 3-year-olds.

Waxwing, as placed in the mile of the fifth number, shapes up as the most probable winner on the card.

FIRST RACE

Night Chase, Evening Time, Stop Light

NIGHT CHASE, second to French Bread in most recent race, looks the part of a blazing cinch as placed in the opener. EVENING TIME, third the other day to Life Guard and Michigan Lady, shapes slightly better than STOP LIGHT, which accounted for major honors in a mile race the other day.

SECOND RACE

Believer, Fair Time, M. B. Blonde, BELIEVER, under the 12 pounds, appears to have a good chance to turn the tables on FAIR TIME. They finished only one-half length apart in their most recent meeting. FAIR TIME will have a weight shift of six pounds against his chances. MY BLONDE appeared to be a trifle shy on racing condition in her initial start of the meeting.

THIRD RACE

Galen Boy, Fast Express, Victorious Ann
GALLEN BOY, third to James N. and Lakeview in most recent start, is dropping away down the class ladder and figures to gallop. FAST EXPRESS, which needed out Lucky Jean the other day, figures to outstay VICTORIOUS ANN.

FOURTH RACE

Blind Brook, Grace Grier, Story Time
BLIND BROOK will have a track right up to order and should atone for recent disappointments.

Revised line, Jockeys at Suffolk

By Bay State News Service, Inc.

FIRST RACE
xStop Light, 107, Berger
Dim Hope, 112, Richards
Liberty Torch, 104, Yarberry
Flying Victory, 112, Donoso
Running Free, 109, Page
Evening Time, 100, Bierman
Maxine, 104, Cook
Night Chase, 104, F. A. Smith

SECOND RACE
xVixen, 112, Berger
M. B. Nick, 117, Driscoll
Trotter Trotter, 112, Krovis
Curtains, 117, Coule
Flying Victory, 112, Donoso
M. B. Blonde, 107, Keppler
Far Time, 126, Bierman xBeliever, 112, Driscoll

THIRD RACE
Dead Calm, 116, O'Malley
Hastings, 108, Berger
Victorious Ann, 102, no boy
Fast Express, 111, Romaine
Galen Boy, 118, Turner
Whisper, 126, Bierman
xPrince Sador, 111, Keppler
Good Actor, 116, Albrecht

FOURTH RACE
xFlowers Lady, 103, Romaine
xVeeclike, 103, Robertson
xStory Time, 108, Krovis
Grace Grier, 103, Keppler
xMount Echo, 110, Mastiani xParadise, 113, Driscoll Blind Brook, 112, Bierman
xEl Puma, 107, Berger
Manda's Baby, 106, Scheib

FIFTH RACE
xMachob, 104, Berger
Bumble Buzz, 114, Coule
Building Trades, 117, Turner xTobacco, 12, Keppler
Waxwing, 114, Scheib

SIXTH RACE
Thanksgiving, 114, Bierman
Sea Voyage, 114, Albrecht xBlind Eagle, 114, Porter
Upstate, 104, Scheib
Battle Jack, 118, Richards
Teddy Weed, 114, Shelhamer Deep End, 106, Sarno
Stage Beauty, 106, F. A. Smith xSherry's Rock, 104, Mora xMrs. E. Denmark entry.

SEVENTH RACE
My Buddy, 103, Berger
Hasty March, 112, Albrecht
Crescent, 103, F. A. Smith
Brogan, 110, Bierman
Miss Hollywood, 109, Donoso
xAlkhurst, 112, Keppler

EIGHTH RACE
Bay Body, 111, Griggs
Bright Call, 118, Sarno
Peaceful, 109, Bierman
Scudder, 114, Scheib
Erin's Sun, 113, Krovis
High Tension, 111, No boy
Terrier On, 111, Sarno
Baby War, 105, Mora Mad Frog, 111, Shelhamer xApprentice allowance claimed.
Weather foggy; track muddy.

Suffolk Scatches
1—Brown Marvel, Richstrike, Caribbebrook.
4—Droll Story.
6—Slow Motion, Warlike.
7—Consider Me, Old Main Road.
Sub race declared off.
Weather foggy, track muddy.

Cochrane Outsmarts Dykes in Trade

By Associated Press

Jimmy Dykes hit his big black cigar clean in half, threw both ends clear out past first base, and mumbled to himself:
"I'll get that Cochrane guy yet, even if I have to kidnap his nose."

Vernon Kennedy, the pitcher Jimmy "cast off" last winter, had just stopped Dykes' Chicago White Sox with six hits for his seventh straight win. And over in the victorious Detroit Tigers dugout, Mickey Cochrane, Dykes' pal and all-American goat getter, might have been snickering up his sleeve.

The story starts, of course, in the days when Mickey and Jimmy, teammates for years on the Athletics, were traded to the Tigers and, respectively, each became manager of his new club, and since then each has been trying to get the other's goat.

DETROIT FANS IN ARMS
Last December Jimmy engineered a play-er swap by Jimmy Dykes which his Sox gave pitcher Kennedy, Outfielder, Dixie Walker and Infielder Tony Piet to Mickey's Tigers. In return, Outfielder Gerry Walker, Third Baseman Marv Owen and Rookie Catcher Mickey Fresh came to the White Sox from Detroit.

Immediately Detroit fandom was up in arms. While Jimmy was getting congratulations all over the place for getting the best of his No. 1 nemesis, the Detroit faithful threatened Mickey with boycotts, sit-down strikes, and everything to meeting him in a dark alley some night.

They kicked each other a lot about it. Cochrane contended Jimmy would never be able to stand the strain of Gerry Walker's wacky ways, and Dykes went so far as to have a night club master of ceremonies present Cochrane with a cursevered hand. He said that "Tony first could get to hit curve-ball pitching."

BIG THORN KENNEDY
Came this season and the de-Mickey Cochrane velopments of its first six weeks, and so far Cochrane's done the gloating. Gerry Walker is hitting a mere and Marv Owen 274 for the White Sox. While Dixie Walker, who had been called "brittle" has played in 31 of the Tigers' 32 games and has compiled a respectable .309 average.

The big thorn in Jimmy's side, however, has been Kennedy. All Vernon has done so far is win seven straight, and he has yet to taste defeat. When he whipped the Sox yesterday, pitching Detroit to a 5-2 victory with the aid of Hank Greenberg's 11th homer, a terrific 440-foot smash, Jimmy was in top form. While Jimmy was get-

Today's Race Scatches

AT AGAWAM PARK
1—Happy Marlene, Wimbledon, Gaona, Silent Gift, Town League.
2—Unlimited, Good Dancer, All, Little Jay, Pretty War, Morfite.
4—Merry Breezes, Lantana, Anke, Mason B., Detonation, Sou Feng.
6—Titan Kiddle, Mr. Duncannon.
8—Klorion, Fly, Miss.
7—Landscape, Pampered.
8—Briar Thora, Pretty Lass, Aur-
1—angzeb.
Weather cloudy; track good.

AT AURORA
1—Servant, Pride, Chantessia.
2—Manhunt, War Jest.
3—(Runs as Eighth)—Ormont
4—Girl, Cardibre, Jules Lazard, Eva R.
5—Terlache, Trevalion.
6—Kinky Art, Red Park.
8—Declared off—Ninth runs as Fifth.
6—Fair Flax.
8—(Runs as Third)—Wardell Ormond, Lamont, Wanda Traveler.
8—(Runs as Fifth)—Leumad, Vo-la Bowers.
Weather cloudy, track muddy.

AT CHARLES TOWN
2—Jimmy S., Cat's Castle, Dixie
Bee, Starmint, Sun Belle, Justa (Center).
3—Macroe, Wittekind, Rock

Spray, Gold Sweeper, Judith R.
4—Pack Away, Lady Gursil, Easter
Herald, Gaylass.
5—Declared off; ninth runs as fifth.
8—Justa Pilgrim.
8—(Runs as fifth)—Chilotta, Ma-chilla.
Weather clear; track sloppy.

AT WOODBINE
4—Alidwyn, Gold Lure, Lipton.
7—Peeble.
8—Centennial.
Weather cloudy; track fast.

AT RIVER DOWNS
1—Stall Man.
2—Derby Eve.
3—Mere Blaze.
5—Sarah Justice.
7—Col. Goodnight.
8—Bang.
Weather clear; track slow.

AT DETROIT
1—Die Hard.
6—Coulee Dam.
Weather cloudy; track fast.

AT CHURCHILL DOWNS
3—Jaycee, The Shingler.
Weather: cloudy; track fast.
AT BEULAH PARK
1—Sunny Sestina.
2—Truthfully.
7—Free Play.
Weather cloudy; track slow.

SUFFOLK DOWNS Consensus

First Race	Second Race	Third Race	Fourth Race	Fifth Race	Sixth Race	Seventh Race	Eighth Race	Ninth Race
Lancet 34	Believer 40	Vic's Victory 39	El Puma 41	Waxwing 45	Blind Eagle 40	Miss H'wood 41	High T'n's 38	Balders 40
Stop Light 35	Fair Time 35	Galen Boy 34	Blind Brook 31	Tobacco 33	Blind Eagle 34	Crescent 39	Scudder 35	Cora 33
My Chie 36	M. B. Blonde 37	Whisper 33	Grace Grier 29	Grace Grier 29	Blind Eagle 34	Blind Eagle 34	Blind Eagle 34	Blind Eagle 34

SUFFOLK DOWNS Selectors

Selectors	First Race	Second Race	Third Race	Fourth Race	Fifth Race	Sixth Race	Seventh Race	Eighth Race	Ninth Race
Wison	Night Chase	Believer	Galen Boy	Blind Brook	WAXWING	Blind Eagle	Miss H'wood	High T'n's	Cora
The Owl	Night Chase	Fair Time	Galen Boy	Blind Brook	WAXWING	Blind Eagle	Miss H'wood	High T'n's	Cora
Formist	Night Chase	Fair Time	Galen Boy	Blind Brook	WAXWING	Blind Eagle	Miss H'wood	High T'n's	Cora
Railbird	Night Chase	Fair Time	Galen Boy	Blind Brook	WAXWING	Blind Eagle	Miss H'wood	High T'n's	Cora
Judge	Night Chase	Fair Time	Galen Boy	Blind Brook	WAXWING	Blind Eagle	Miss H'wood	High T'n's	Cora
Leapfrog	Night Chase	Fair Time	Galen Boy	Blind Brook	WAXWING	Blind Eagle	Miss H'wood	High T'n's	Cora
Tip	Night Chase	Fair Time	Galen Boy	Blind Brook	WAXWING	Blind Eagle	Miss H'wood	High T'n's	Cora
Gasp	Night Chase	Fair Time	Galen Boy	Blind Brook	WAXWING	Blind Eagle	Miss H'wood	High T'n's	Cora

Spy Ring Steals U. S. Plans

2 CENTS

BOSTON EVENING AMERICAN

New England's Greatest Evening Newspaper

8

BOSTON, SATURDAY, MAY 28, 1938

Copyright, 1938, by R. B. Newspaper Publishing Co.

Entered as second-class matter at Boston Postoffice

PRICE TWO CENTS

State Probers Spur Anti-Red Drive

Story on Page 3

Yates Leads In British Golf, 3 Up

TROON, Scotland, May 28 (AP)—Shooting par golf all the way, Charley Yates of Atlanta was three up on Cecil Ewing of Ireland today after 27 holes of their 36-hole final for the British amateur golf championship.

The cards:
Out—
Yates 4 5 4 3 5 5 4 3 4—38
Ewing 4 4 4 4 5 3 4 3 4—36
In—
Yates 5 4 4 3 5 5 3 4—37—75
Ewing 4 4 5 4 4 6 4 4—39—75
Afternoon round:
Yates, out 4 4 4 5 5 5 4 3—36
Ewing, out 5 5 4 4 5 4 3 5—34
(Details on Sport Page.)

Nazis, Czechs Resume Parley

PRAGUE, Czechoslovakia, May 28 (AP)—Czechoslovakia's restless Germanic minority today resumed peace parleys with the government on the eve of municipal elections which were watched tensely in fear of new war-breeding border disorders.

Representatives of the Sudeten German party, leaders of most of the 3,500,000 Germans within troubled Czechoslovakia, were received by Premier Hodza for a lengthy consultation.

(Details on Page 6)

Memorial Day

Monday, May 30

THE BOSTON EVENING AMERICAN Will Not Be Published

Chinese Kill Jap Girl Spy

LONDON, May 28 (INS)—Lelai, beautiful 25-year-old "Queen of the Chinese Night Clubs" and asserted leader of the Japanese spy system, was executed at dawn today by a firing squad at Hankow, according to a Daily Express dispatch from Hongkong.

The execution took place in an open area adjoining Chinese army headquarters at Hankow, the newspaper reported.

Lelai, in the manner of a Mata Hari of the East, smiled and refused to the last to reveal the secrets in exchange for which the Chinese offered her life.

She was arrested in a raid on the Chinese Y. W. C. A. rooms in Hankow last night, according to the Express. Documents were reported found in her room proving she was in regular touch with certain Japanese agents in Hongkong, British crown colony, which Chinese army chiefs believe to be headquarters of a Japanese spy ring.

Suspicion attached to Lelai last week, the Express said, when it was found she cashed a draft for $20,000 sent to Hankow through a foreign bank.

Stocks Perk Up, Then Turn Tail

NEW YORK, May 28 (AP)—Leading stocks took on a faint rallying tinge in today's brief market. Selected issues were given a lift of fractions to more than 51 a share at the best, but profit selling near the close shaded top marks or cancelled gains.

At Nat. League Field

BROOKLYN
Rosen, cf
English, 2b
Canilli, 1b
Lavagetto, 3b
Phelps, c
Roy, rf
Hassett, lf
Durocher, ss
Hanslin, p
Game starts at 3 o'clock

REES
Fletcher, 1b
G. Moore, cf
DiMaggio, cf
West, lf
Cuccinello, 2b
Garns, 3b
Mueller, c
Wardner, ss
Shoffner, p

U. S. Plans Stolen by Spy Ring

By ROBERT G. NIXON
International News Service Staff Correspondent
(Copyright, 1938)

WASHINGTON, May 28 (INS)—The most far-flung foreign espionage ring since World War days has been uncovered by the American government, it was learned today.

A five-month secret investigation, in which the full forces of the Department of Justice have been brought to bear in co-operation with the army and navy intelligence branches, has disclosed that certain foreign governments have been systematically seeking to gain America's vital defense secrets.

Several of the latest and most secret army and navy defense developments have been obtained by the spy ring, it was ascertained.

The discovery that a foreign government possessed one of these secret processes was instrumental in leading to discovery of the espionage group.

The investigation is expected to result within a few days in a series of indictments of persons suspected of being in the pay of foreign governments on charges of conspiracy to violate the espionage act.

The indictments may include figures prominently connected abroad. Several suspects already are under arrest on this country. Others are being sought.

At least three major world powers were involved by the inquiry. One central European power, in particular, is suspected.

WEATHER

Generally fair and slightly warmer today; cloudy tomorrow with probable showers tomorrow night and Monday. (Complete report on Page 2.)

"JUSTICE, HUMPH!"—Representative and Mrs. Jerry O'Connell, who vow they will return to Jersey City, possibly to tell a federal grand jury about the mob of Hague adherents who kept the Montana congressman from speaking. "A lie!" cried O'Connell about a Jersey version of the "joist." "I was injured by the mob," said Mrs. O'Connell, who was at her husband's side. Story on Page 5

BARCELONA BOMBED

BARCELONA, May 28 (AP)—Eight low-flying planes bombed Barcelona heavily this morning through a terrific blaze of anti-aircraft fire.